Construction of perpendiculars to straight lines.
Construction of an angle equal to a given angle.
Construction of parallels to a given straight line.

If two sides of a triangle are unequal the greater side has the greater angle opposite to it; and the converse.

Any two sides of a triangle are together greater than the third.

Of all straight lines that can be drawn to a given straight line from a given point outside it, the perpendicular is the shortest.

When a straight line cuts two other straight lines, if—

(1) a pair of alternate angles are equal, or
(2) a pair of corresponding angles are equal, or
(3) a pair of interior angles on the same side of the cutting line are together equal to two right angles, then the straight lines are parallel; and the converse.

The sum of the angles of a triangle is equal to two right angles; and the two corollaries thereto.

If two triangles have two angles of the one equal to two angles of the other, each to each, and also one side of the one equal to the corresponding side of the other, the triangles are congruent.

If two right-angled triangles have their hypotenuses equal and one other side of the one equal to one other side of the other, the triangles are congruent.

The opposite sides and angles of a parallelogram are equal, each diagonal bisects the parallelogram; and the diagonals bisect one another.

If there are three or more parallel straight lines and the intercepts made by them on any straight line that cuts them are equal, then the corresponding intercepts on any other straight line that cuts them are also equal.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 4614L.A.—11th November, 1937.—In pursuance of the provisions of rule 21 of the Bengal Legislative Assembly Rules, the following Bill which was introduced in the Bengal Legislative Assembly on the 16th September, 1937, is hereby published for general information together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons annexed thereto.

FIXATION OF MINIMUM RATES OF WAGES BILL, 1937.

A

to make fixation of wages.

1. This Act shall be called Fixation of Minimum Rates of Wages Act.

2. The Ministry of Public Works shall set up in each district or subdivision, as the case may be, Joint Boards consisting of an equal number of employers' and workmen's representatives for the purpose of settling minimum rates of payment to workmen employed in factories or mines governed by the Factories Act, 1934, as amended, and the Indian Mines Act, 1923, as amended, which in no case shall be lower than Rupees thirty per mensem, except in cases governed by section 2 and section 6 of this Act. XXV of 1934. IV of 1923.

3. Joint Boards set up under this Act shall be presided over by independent Chairmen chosen by themselves or, in case of failure, by the Ministry of Public Works.

4. Joint Boards shall take into account such matters as the infirmity of workmen due to illness or accident, the irregularity of employment, interruption of work due to an emergency and only in such cases shall the Joint Boards be empowered to reduce the minimum rate of Rupees thirty per mensem.

5. In the case of establishments not governed by the Indian Mines Act, 1923, or the Factories Act, 1934, Joint Boards shall be established for the district or subdivision or for a particular industry, trade, occupation, agricultural employment or service for the purpose of fixing minimum rates of wages which shall be such as are determined by the Joint Board for such localities, industries, trades, occupations, agricultural employment or service keeping in view (a) the prevailing rates of wages, (b) cost of living, and (c) the necessity of providing a living wage.

6. It shall be competent for the workmen in any factory or mine by a duly authenticated majority of seven-eighths to vary the provisions by agreement with the employer regarding the minimum fixed under this Act under section 2.

7. Any person governed by the provisions of this Act or a Trade Union official or an official of an employers' organisation or any member of a Joint Board constituted under this Act may make a complaint of the breach of the order of Joint Boards or the provisions of this Act and on such complaint, every offence shall be tried summarily and be punishable with a fine which may extend to Rupees one hundred.

8. It shall be competent for a Court to order the payment of compensation to the aggrieved party out of such fine or fines levied under section 7 of this Act, if and when recovered.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The low standard of wages prevailing in Bengal and the existence of sweated rates of wages are factors which militate against the prosperity of the Province and the happiness, well-being and health of the working classes. It is the duty of the State to guarantee a minimum living wage to the workers who produce its wealth and who are unable to obtain it owing to their lack of organization, their poverty and their consequent weakness as against powerful and well-organised employing interests. It is in such conditions that the existence of a Minimum Wages Act becomes an absolute necessity not only in the interest of the working class but equally in the national interests.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 4615L.A.—11th November, 1937.—In pursuance of the provisions of rule 21 of the Bengal Legislative Assembly Rules, the following Bill which was introduced in the Bengal Legislative Assembly on the 15th September, 1937, is hereby published for general information together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons annexed thereto.

THE BENGAL MEDICAL (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1937.

A

BILL

further to amend the Bengal Medical Act VI, 1914.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Bengal Medical Act, 1914, for the purposes hereinafter appearing; Ben. Act VI of 1914.

AND WHEREAS the previous sanction of the Governor under sub-section (1) of section 119 of the Government of India Act, 1935, has been obtained to the passing of this Act; 26 Geo. V., c. 2.

It is hereby enacted as follows :—

PRELIMINARY.

Short title, extent and commencement.

1. (a) This Act shall be called the Bengal Medical (Amendment) Act, 1937.

(b) It shall extend to the whole of Bengal.

(c) It shall come into force immediately.

Amendment of section 17.

2. (i) In section 17 insert the following as the first proviso, viz. :—

(1) Provided that the Governor in Council of Ministers may, after consulting the Medical Council, permit the registration of :—

(a) any person who has undergone a full course of training in any medical college or school and has obtained a certificate to that effect from the head of such college or school and who was practising as a medical practitioner on the date when the Act came into force; and

(b) any person who has obtained proper training in any medical institution and joined the medical profession before the 5th September, 1937, provided that he passes a special examination such as the Medical Council may hold for the purpose of granting registration.

(ii) In the existing proviso to section 17, insert the word "also" between the word "Provided" and the words "that the Council may."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

From some time past it has been felt that the provisions of the Bengal Medical Act, 1914, are causing much hardship to a large number of persons who, though properly trained and possessed of degrees, diplomas, certificates, etc., from sources other than those recognised by the authorities and though they had been actually practising Medicine, Surgery and Midwifery from before 1914, cannot get themselves registered and thus become qualified medical practitioners. Practitioners with similar qualification in other provinces, viz., Bombay, the Punjab, the United Provinces, Burma, etc., have been given the privilege of registration long ago, either by amendments of the Acts of the respective provinces or by Government notification. In Bengal nothing in this direction has been done up-to-date. These practitioners of Bengal have therefore formed themselves into a corporate body under the name and style of the Bengal Medical Union and have been making representations which should not be altogether ignored. The redress sought for may be given by a simple amendment of the Bengal Medical Act, and it is the object of the present Bill to make this amendment.

The Bengal Medical Act, 1914, in seeking to give protection to the public against quacks, omitted to make provision for the safety of those doctors who had obtained diplomas and certificates from various well-organised and efficient medical institutions before the passing of the Act, who had been practising with ability and reputation for a long time and who could by no stretch of language be called quacks. Yet, in the result, these able, experienced and well-reputed doctors have been classed among the quacks. Many of them have been thrown out of employ from hospitals, tea gardens, ships, steamers, etc., debarred from granting certificates of birth or of illness, and handicapped in many other ways. Their difficulties increased when the Poison Act (Act XII of 1919) came into force and prohibited them from procuring for their patients the requisite drugs included in the schedule of poisons. The transitory provision by Government for an examination of these doctors by the State Medical Faculty was in force only for two years from the passing of the Bengal Medical Act, 1914. The time was too short for the majority to avail themselves of the concession, and moreover a good many did not even get the necessary information within the period. Such people are now on the brink of starvation. Many of them have outgrown the age at which a change of avocation is possible, and, for obvious reasons, a fresh examination also is out of the question. The proposed proviso (1) (a) of the Bill is intended to meet the cause of these people.

The case of those who have obtained proper training in unrecognised medical institutions since 1914 stands on a similar footing. Several unregistered doctors, who had received their training in such institutions, are now serving in tea gardens, coal mines, etc.; and they have been highly spoken of by their superior Medical Officers, both Indian and European. Some of these unrecognised institutions have since been recognised; but the students, who completed their course of education therein and began to practise before such recognition, have been left in the lurch. We therefore find good doctors trained at the same institutions, one set of whom—the older and more experienced set—are unqualified for want of registration, while another set are qualified by registration. Under these circumstances it is but fair and equitable that such students should be given at least one chance of being qualified. Hence the necessity for proviso (1) (b).

No. 4616L.A.—11th November, 1937.—In pursuance of the provisions of rule 21 of the Bengal Legislative Assembly Rules, the following Bill which was introduced in the Bengal Legislative Assembly on the 16th September, 1937, is hereby published for general information together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons annexed thereto.

THE BENGAL LAND-REVENUE SALES (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1937.

A

further to amend the Bengal Land-Revenue Sales Act, 1859.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Bengal Land-Revenue Sales Act, 1859, in the manner hereinafter given; Act II of 1859.

It is hereby enacted as follows :—

This Act may be called the Bengal Land-Revenue Sales (Amendment) Act, 1937.

It extends to the whole of Bengal.

After section 37 of the Act the following sections shall be inserted as sections 37A, 37B, 37C :—

37A. Where any estate or share of an estate has been sold under this Act, any person either owning such property or holding an interest therein by virtue of a title acquired before such sale or whose interests are affected by the sale may, at any time within thirty days from the date of the sale, apply to have the sale set aside on his depositing with the Collector of the district—

(a) for payment to the purchaser a sum equal to five per cent. of the purchase money ; and

37B. (1) Where the deposit required by section 37A is made within thirty days from the date of the sale, the Collector shall make an order setting aside the sale, provided that no order shall be made unless the notice of the application has been given to all persons affected thereby.

(2) No suit to set aside an order made under this section shall be brought by any person against whom such order is made.

37C. (1) Where the sale has been set aside at the instance of, and on the deposit by, a person other than the defaulting proprietor or proprietors, the amount paid for such setting aside of the sale, shall be deemed to be a debt bearing interest at six per cent. per annum and secured by a mortgage of the estate sold in favour of the said person.

(2) His mortgage shall take priority over other charges on the said estate other than a charge for arrears of revenue.

(3) He shall be entitled to the possession of the said estate as mortgagee of the defaulting proprietor or proprietors and to retain possession of it as such until the said debt with interest thereon has been discharged.

Nothing in this section shall affect any other remedy to which any such person would be entitled.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

According to the Civil Procedure Code, every sale can be set aside at the instance of the person affected by the sale on his depositing the amount due from him within a certain period thus giving an opportunity to recover the property without causing any consequential loss to anybody. The same principle has been extended by a recent amendment of the Bengal Patni Taluks Regulation, 1819. It is, therefore, proposed that some such relief should be given to the defaulting proprietors who have, through unforeseen circumstances, been unable to save their properties by timely deposit of their dues. At the same time, the Bill proposes to give relief to a genuinely aggrieved class of people whose interests are all destroyed by a sale under the Revenue-Sale Law and who can rarely find opportunity to save their interests in time by payment of the revenue before the last date of payment. The Bill further provides a better method of realisation of the balance of the arrears of the revenue when an estate is sold below the revenue demand and the sale is set aside in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(3) sub-clause (vi) of clause (8) of section 2 of the Act shall be omitted.

"and also particulars of any immovable property as in clause (e) which has been purchased at the sale and the delivery of the possession of which taken by decree-holder or some persons on behalf of him, within seven years previous to the date of his application together with the name or names and address of the purchasers."

Repeal of section 31.

5. Section 31 of the said Act shall be omitted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

1. It is agreed by all that the agriculturists of Bengal who form 90 per cent. of the population of rural area should be given substantial relief of their heavy and over-burdened indebtedness to save them as a class from ruin for the sake of the greater interests of all classes of the people of Bengal as a whole. Besides the previous usual exorbitant high rate of interest supported by the then existing law, the sudden unexpected and unusual fall in the price of agricultural crops upon which the agriculturists of Bengal mainly depend, has made their pecuniary condition awfully miserable, owing to the world-wide economic depression prevailing since the year 1930 and as a result of which the paying capacity of the agriculturists has been totally lost. On account of this acute economic distress prevailing all over Bengal specially affecting the jute-growing districts most of the agriculturists had to be struggling for only meeting the expenses of bare daily necessaries of life to maintain their families. In the circumstances it cannot be expected of all of them that they should have duly made payment of that dues to their creditors and in that case they cannot be held responsible for their unwillingness to do so. The Government of Bengal also in realising the serious nature of the distress at that critical time came forward to save the producers of national wealth and helped them with supplying agricultural loans in the year 1932. And in the meantime during the last few years of economic depression since 1930 landed properties of many agricultural debtors have been sold and purchased at the sale by many decree-holders in execution of their decrees in civil courts for such a small amount which is very trifling in consideration of the real value of those properties in normal time. The poor debtors had to allow it as there was then no help. While decree-holders have gone step further. Taking undue advantage of the helplessness of the judgment-debtors and knowing full well their incapacity to pay, most of the creditors have utilised this opportunity in favour of their selfish ends, in taking delivery of symbolical possession of their landed properties including the homesteads of many debtors through the help of the civil courts, though of course, most of these cases have failed in actually satisfying their claims as the lands concerned are practically in the direct possession of debtors as it was before and over which disputes still exist. It should not be understood that the debtors are to be given indulgence to deprive the creditors of their legitimate claims in no case whatsoever which are reasonable and just. But it cannot be supported that this sort of debt-dispute over the possession of immovable properties of debtors including their homesteads should be allowed to continue further to embitter the feelings between the creditors and debtors and thereby threaten to disturb the peace of rural Bengal. This aspect of the present debt-problem should not be neglected for the vital interests of poor agricultural debtors unless most of them are intended to be turned into day-labourers and driven out from their ancestral homes to the mercy of God. Debt Settlement Boards worth existence to settle amicably these sorts of disputes over possession of lands arising out of debts of the nature.

In order that the Debt Settlement Boards may take up these disputed cases for amicable settlement between the parties concerned, provision should be made in the Bengal Agricultural Debtors Act, 1935, to give a retrospective effect of the Act from 1930.

2. Most of the agricultural debtors are at present also heavily indebted to Co-operative Societies and other Banks. It will practically serve no useful purpose by only settling and for that purpose scaling down the liabilities to individual creditors if no favourable settlement and adjustment is possible with regard to their other liabilities to Co-operative Societies and Banks. For this reason the definition of "debt" should also include such liabilities and the Act should be so amended.

"and personal clothing of the members of the household and food-stuff sufficient to sustain the family members for two months, and cooking utensils."

Amendment of section 56.

21. In section 56, sub-section (1), clause (b), the following proviso shall be added, namely :—

"provided that the period shall never exceed six months".

Amendment of section 57.

22. In section 57, sub-section (2), the following proviso shall be added, namely :—

"provided that the members constituting the board at the time of supersession shall not be eligible at the time of election for the establishment of the board."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The purpose of the Bill is to do away with nomination in local bodies and also to extend the franchise to include all adult persons within the area under the control of a local body.

The reasons for such amendment are obvious. One of the purposes of local self-government is to associate the people in the administration of their own affairs and thus train them in methods of Government. Nomination cuts across the principle of representation, and the system as it now obtains, leads to the anomalous position in which a person in spite of the opposition of the majority of elected members in the local body may be, and often is, elected Chairman of the district board or President of union board, with the help of the nominated members. This encourages ambitious and designing persons to court the favour of local officials in order to secure their position, instead of attempting to win the confidence of their electorate through useful and hard work.

With regard to the extension of franchise, it is generally admitted that the representation should be as wide as possible. All kinds of arguments are advanced against such extension in the case of the legislatures, but even these arguments concede that the franchise ought to be co-extensive with the adult population of the country. In the case of the local bodies, these arguments have hardly any force, and besides, local bodies should be treated as the training ground in which people learn to prepare themselves for the use of the franchise in the wider sphere of national affairs.

THE BENGAL SHOP CONTROLLING BILL, 1937.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the physical, mental and financial improvement of the shopkeepers ;

It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Bengal Shop Controlling Act, 1937.

2. In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context, "Shop" means all shops paying trade license tax excepting those that come within Factory Act.

3. This Act will come into force from such date as the Provincial Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, direct.

4. That under this Act no shop shall carry on its transactions with customers after 8 p.m.

5. If any shop carries on transaction after 8 p.m. it will have to pay a fine of Rs. 5.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The aim and object of this Bill is to stop unnecessary and unfair competition to the utter deterioration of health and mind of both the employers and employees.

In Calcutta the Book Sellers Association transact no business after 8 p.m. and if other shops follow their example they too will be gainer.

THE BENGAL (RURAL) PRIMARY EDUCATION (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1937.

to amend the Bengal (Rural) Primary Education Act, 1930.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Bengal (Rural) Primary Education Act, 1930 ; Ben. Act VII of 1930.

It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Bengal (Rural) Primary Education (Amendment) Act, 1937.

Repeal of sub-section (4) of section 30 of Ben. Act VII of 1930.

2. Sub-section (4) of section 30 of the Bengal (Rural) Primary Education Act, 1930, is hereby repealed.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

It is a well-known fact that the Bengal peasantry cannot afford to pay any new tax owing to their poverty; but the Act VII of 1930 has compelled them to pay a fresh tax. This Bill is intended to provide relief for them from the said taxation.

THE HOURS OF WORK BILL, 1937.

to make provision for hours of work.

1. This Act may be called the Hours of Work Act.

2. In all factories, establishments and mines governed by the Indian Factories Act or by the Indian Mines Act, the maximum number of hours of work for employees shall be forty per week, provided that the provisions contained in these Acts regarding overtime and all incidental matters pertaining thereto, shall be valid as heretofore. XXV of 1934. IV of 1923.

3. No employer shall pay less than the wages paid as on the 1st of May, 1937, to any worker governed by Indian Factories Act or the Indian Mines Act whose hours of work, henceforth as a result of the passing of this Act, shall be reduced to forty per week.

4. Breaches of the provisions of this Act shall be tried summarily on complaint lodged by a workman or any persons on his behalf and punished with a fine which may extend to fifty rupees for each such breach.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The problem of unemployment has assumed serious proportion and calls for drastic remedies. In European countries and in America it has been found that a reduction of the hours of work has resulted in increased employment almost with mathematical certainty. Experts have held that in hot climates it is necessary to safeguard the health of workers by providing shorter hours of work. Therefore, both from the point of view of health and the urgent necessity of finding more employment it has become imperative to reduce the limit of work in factories and mines to forty hours per week.

THE BENGAL COURT OF WARDS (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1937.

BILL

further to amend the Court of Wards Act, 1879.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend certain sections of the Court of Wards Act, 1879 ; Ben. Act IX of 1879.

It is enacted as follows :—

1. This Act may be called the Bengal Court of Wards (Amendment) Act, 1937.

2. It shall come into force as soon as it will finally be published in the Calcutta Gazette.

3. In this Act the word " Act " means The Bengal Act IX of 1879.

4. Clause (e) of section 6 of the Act shall be repealed.

5. After clause (d) of section 6 of the Act the following sections shall be added, namely :—

" 6A. All properties taken under the charge of the Court, excepting of those described under clauses (a), (b), (c) and (d) of section 6 of the Act, shall subject to its other provisions be released from the Court's charge immediately after this Act comes into force.

6B. A disqualified proprietor under this Act shall also be disqualified from being appointed or elected as, and from being a member of a Local body."

6. The proviso to section 7 of the Act shall be omitted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The original intention of passing of the Act, so far as it can be gathered, was to give protection to those who really needed it. But now it has practically become a fashion to call oneself as disqualified proprietor. So it is time to put a stop to the taking charge of anybody's property who may desire to shift the burden of managing his private property to the Government. By so doing a good deal of Government energy that is practically being spent for the benefit of certain individuals can be released and utilised for public good.

83 (A). All the provisions of the Bengal Court of Wards Act, as amended up to date, shall apply, as far as may be consistent with the provision of the Wakf Act, to the Wakf Estate taken over by the Commissioner of Wakfs for management under section 27(1)(f) and 27C(c).

10. The words "five years" in the 4th line of section 53, sub-section (1), shall be deleted and the following words substituted in their place "1 year in case of house property and 3 years in case of agricultural lands."

11. In section 78 of the Act insert the word " exclusively" between the words "Bengal" and "by" in the 4th line of 2nd paragraph (section 23A).

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Wakf Act of 1934 is defective in many ways. There are several ambiguities and omissions which make its provisions ineffective and infructuous. Some of the powers now given to the Board of Wakfs and the Commissioner of Wakfs which heretofore used to be exercised by the Civil Courts, have not been withdrawn specifically from the latter, and this leads to conflict of jurisdiction.

For the proper administration of wakfs it is necessary to invest the Board of Wakfs with more powers particularly with regard to financing and management of wakf properties and their protection from sale.

It is also necessary to simplify the trial of wakf suits between interested persons and arrange for their expeditious disposal.

Although it was intended that the Board should effectively control the management and administration of wakfs particularly those in which no mutawalli is functioning, the Act does not clearly define such powers. Particularly in cases where receivers are in possession having been appointed by courts it has been found difficult to bring them under control.

The present amending Bill aims at the solution of these difficulties.

A

BILL

further to amend the Bengal Medical Act, 1914.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Bengal Medical Act, 1914, for the purpose hereinafter appearing : Ben. Act VI of 1914.

AND WHEREAS the previous sanction of the Governor has been obtained under sub-section (1) of section 119 of the Government of India Act, 1935, to the passing of this Act ; 26 Geo. V, c. 2.

It is enacted as follows :—

Short title, extent and commencement.

1. (i) This Act may be called the Bengal Medical (Amendment) Act, 1937.

(ii) It extends to the whole of Bengal.

(iii) It shall come into force on the day on which it is published in the Calcutta Gazette after having received the assent of the Governor.

2. (i) After section 17 add the following proviso :—

Provided that the Local Government may, after consulting the Council, permit registration of—

Any person who shall, within three years of the passing of the Bengal Medical (Amendment) Act, 1937, furnish to the Registrar proof that he obtained proper training in any medical school recognised by the Local Government prior to such recognition and joined the medical profession before the coming into operation of the Bengal Medical (Amendment) Act, 1937.

(ii) In proviso to section 17 between the word "provided" and the words "that the Council" the word "further" shall be added.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Clause 3 of the schedule of the Bengal Medical Act, 1914, grants to persons who have been trained in a medical school in India not maintained but recognised by the Local Government for the purposes of the said schedule and hold a diploma or certificate granted by such school the right to get himself registered as a medical practitioner under section 17 of the Act. But the Act does not allow any such right to persons who have obtained such training and diploma or certificate from the school prior to such recognition by the Local Government. Most of the Medical Acts of other provinces of India and England have allowed recognition to such persons and made necessary arrangements therefor from time to time. Moreover the coming into operation of the Indian Medical Council Act, 1933, has put further restrictions upon their practice. The object of this Bill therefore is to give those persons who received their training in and obtained diplomas and certificates from medical schools recognised by the Local Government prior to such recognition an opportunity of getting themselves registered under the Bengal Medical Act, 1914, within three years.

THE BENGAL COURT OF WARDS (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1937.

BILL

further to amend the Court of Wards Act, 1879.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Court of Wards Act, 1879 ;

It be enacted as follows :—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Bengal Court of Wards (Amendment) Act, 1937.

Amendment and partial repeal of section 10C of Bengal Act IX of 1879

2. In section 10C of the Court of Wards Act, 1879 (as amended by the Bengal Court of Wards Amendment Act, 1925)—

(1) in sub-section (1)—

(a) after the word "Ward" the following be inserted :—

"in respect of any liability incurred by the ward prior to assumption of charge of the property by the Court of Wards",

(b) for the word "four" the word "two" be substituted, and

(c) the words "and for seven years thereafter if the interest due under such decree or order be paid in full every year during the said seven years" be repealed.

(2) after sub-section (2) the following be inserted :—

"Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall in any way affect or limit the provisions contained in Regulation VIII of 1819."

Amendment to section 20 of Bengal Act IX of 1879.

3. In section 20 of the said Act, after the word "appointed" the following be inserted :—

"Provided it shall not be lawful for the Court to appoint as manager the ward or any member of the ward's family".

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Court of Wards Act, 1879, was amended in the year 1906, when sections 10A to 10E were added after section 10 of the original Act. Section 10C provided that if any process of execution had been issued by a Civil Court against the immovable property of a ward, or against the rents or crops thereon, the Court of Wards within one year after assumption of charge of the property, might apply to the Civil Court to stay the proceedings; and the Civil Court might, on such terms regarding interest or compensation for delay as might appear to it to be just and reasonable, stay such proceedings for such period as it might deem fit.

The amendment of section 10C of the Act effected in the year 1935 has altogether taken away the power of the Civil Court to execute any decree or order against any property of the ward for a period of four years from the date of the said amendment or from the date of the assumption of charge of the property by the Court of Wards, whichever is later. It has also provided that for a further period of seven years after the said period of four years, such execution will be barred if the interest due under such decree or order be paid in full every year during the said seven years.

The aforesaid amendment, while giving undue advantage to the property of disqualified proprietors, has resulted in great hardship to their creditors for which there does not appear to be any justification.

It is proposed in this amending Bill that the Court of Wards may be allowed a period of two years instead of four to adjust the affairs of the ward without being troubled by execution of any prior decree or order, after which the discretion of the Civil Court should be allowed to be exercised.

It is also proposed that this exemption for two years should be enjoyed by the Court of Wards only in respect of those liabilities which had already been incurred by the ward and not those which the Court of Wards itself incurs after the assumption of charge.

Sub-section (2) of section 10C of the Act contains a provision which also was enacted for the first time by the Amending Act of 1935. It has been designed to protect inter alia the patni tenures of disqualified proprietors on default of payment of patni rent by protecting them from the Patni Sale Law. There has, however, been no corresponding protection extended to the superior landlord, who, while he is being deprived of his patni rent for no fault of his own, has got to meet the revenue demand of the Government at the risk of the superior estate being sold away, while the defaulting patni enjoys immunity. In this amending Bill, it is proposed to add a proviso after sub-section (2) of section 10C, which will remedy this inequity by making the Patni Sale Law applicable as before to the defaulting patni tenures of disqualified proprietors.

The only other amendment proposed in this Bill is to section 20 of the Act, which provides for the appointment of managers under the Court of Wards. Disqualified proprietors or the members of their families are sometimes appointed managers although their failure to manage their property has resulted in the Court of Wards assuming charge. This is objectionable in principle, and the amendment seeks to prevent this practice.

Abolition of illegal cesses.

6. All levies and impositions upon tenants under the denominations of Bhásán, Begár, Párághátá, Golá, Sarkári, Palátaká, Vaiská, Rákh, Bhág, Ádi, Tolá, Tahári, Párbani, Khutágári, Jugán, Hazirá, etc., in addition to the actual rent shall be illegal and any stipulation and reservation for the payment of any such imposition shall be void.

Penalty for exaction of illegal cesses.

7. Every tenant from whom any sum of money or any portion of his catches of fish is exacted by the proprietor or his agent in excess of rent, may within three months from the date of exaction institute a suit to recover from the proprietor such sum by way of penalty as the court may think fit.

8. The rate of interest on arrear rent of fisheries shall be 12½ per cent. per annum if not paid at the end of the year and no damage shall be awarded for non-payment of rent in time.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The raiyats of Bengal have got some relief by the Bengal Tenancy Act amended in 1928. Their remaining disadvantages are going to be remedied to a very large extent by further legislations. But the hardships, disabilities and tyranny to which the fishermen of Bengal are subjected have not yet succeeded to strike the sympathetic chord of the legislators of Bengal. The raiyats of Bengal are extremely poor, but the fishermen are still poorer.

" The actual catchers and carriers are not so well off as the middle man. The income of an ordinary fish catcher working with parties or by himself varies from Rs. 4 to Rs. 12 a month."

" The Fisheries of Bengal " (page No. 13), Sir K. G. Gupta.

" As an illustration of the exactions which are otherwise levied from fishermen, it may be mentioned that on enquiry made a few years ago into some of the river fisheries in Bengal it was found that in a particular river fishery out of total catches valued at Rs. 80,000, Rs. 1,000 went to the landlord, Rs. 20,000 to the actual fishermen and the remainder to the middle men."

"Annual Report on the Working of Co-operative Societies in the Presidency of Bengal for the year 1925-26 " (page No. 18).

The matter has not improved a bit since the reports were written. Generally the main grievance of the fishermen is not against the actual rents to the proprietors but to extra impositions and levies as well as the arrangements by which they are forced to sell their catches to certain people or agencies. These restrictions tell heavily upon the poor fishermen who cannot sell to the highest bidders. In many places non-fishermen take lease of fisheries and screw out as much as they can from the helpless fishermen.

The present Bill attempts at the removal of most of the grievances and disabilities of the fishermen, who for the sake of their earnings have to live the most uncertain and risky lives.

Rai Sarat Chandra Bal Bahadur introduced a Bill last year in Bengal Legislative Council which was held back for circulation. The present Bill has been drafted on the model of the Bill introduced by Rai Sarat Chandra Bal Bahadur, with certain modifications and reservations as have been thought necessary in the light of criticisms offered on the Bill.

BENGAL LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 4656L.A.—15th November, 1937.—In pursuance of the provisions of rule 21 of the Bengal Legislative Assembly Rules, the following Bill which was introduced in the Bengal Legislative Assembly on the 15th September, 1937, is hereby published for general information together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons annexed thereto.

THE BENGAL MEDICAL (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1937.

A

BILL

further to amend the Bengal Medical Act, 1914.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Bengal Medical Act, 1914, for the purpose hereinafter appearing ; Ben. Act VI of 1914.

AND WHEREAS the previous sanction of the Governor has been obtained under sub-section (1) of section 119 of the Government of India Act, 1935, to the passing of this Act ; 26 Geo. 5, Ch. 2.

It is enacted as follows :—

Short title.

1. (i) This Act may be called Bengal Medical (Amendment) Act, 1937.

Extent and commencement.

(ii) It extends to the whole of Bengal.

(iii) It shall come into force on the day on which it is published in the Calcutta Gazette after having received the assent of the Governor.

2. (i) After section 17 add the following proviso :—

Provided that the Local Government may, after consulting the Council, permit registration of—

(a) any person who shall furnish to the Registrar proof that he is possessed of a medical degree, diploma or certificate of any University, Medical College or School approved by the Council other than those described in the Schedule and is such as was actually practising the western (modern scientific system of Allopathic) medicine before 27th May, 1914,

(b) any person who shall furnish to the Registrar proof that he has obtained proper training in any medical institution approved by the Council and has joined medical profession before the enforcement of the Bengal Medical (Amendment) Act, 1937, provided that he passes a special examination such as the Council may hold for the purpose of granting registration.

(ii) In proviso to section 17 between the word "provided" and the words "that the Council" the word "further " shall be added.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Bengal Medical Act (Act VI of 1914) was passed in 1914. But unlike similar Acts in the Punjab, the United Provinces, Burma, Bombay and even in England it did not provide for the permanent relief of the then medical practitioners actually practising in the province. In lieu of this the Government of Bengal only provided temporarily for a limited number of trained men to obtain the registrable qualifications by passing examination. This transitory provision is, however, quite inadequate. Many of the medical practitioners, who lived abroad at that time or who remained in the remotest corners of the interior villages and were not aware of the privilege, had been left out. These unregistered practitioners are not now deemed qualified and are not even considered fit to certify their patients' illness or to procure requisite medicines for their patients. Thus the present All-India Medical Mission have come into existence. It was through their efforts that legislation on the subject was tried several times without success. It is now time to consider the matter afresh and some permanent relief is to be given to these poor medical practitioners.

The Medical Act (Act VI of 1914), while restricting the registration of medical practitioners did not restrict the establishment of private medical institutions. Some of these unrecognised institutions have since been recognised. But the students who completed their course of education therein and began to practise before such recognition have been left in the lurch. Therefore it is found that there are two sets of good doctors trained at the same institutions, one set of whom are unqualified for want of registration, while another set are qualified by registration. It is but fair and equitable that such students should be given another opportunity of being qualified.

Other medical institutions still unrecognised are producing medical practitioners. In order to qualify them they should also be given a chance to appear in another Licentiateship examination similar to that of 1916.

It is to do away with the disabilities of these medical practitioners and to enable them to get their names entered in the "Register of Registered Practitioners" that this amendment to the Bengal Medical Act (Act VI of 1914) is required.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 3101L.—11th November, 1937.—The Governor having been pleased to order, under rule 19 of the Bengal Legislative Assembly Rules, as modified and adapted under section 84 (3) of the Government of India Act, 1935, the publication of the following Bill, together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons which accompanies it, in the Calcutta Gazette, the Bill and the Statement of Objects and Reasons are accordingly hereby published for general information :—

THE BENGAL RHINOCEROS PRESERVATION (AMENDMENT) BILL 1937.

to amend the Bengal Rhinoceros Preservation Act, 1932.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Bengal Rhinoceros Preservation Act, 1932, in the manner hereinafter appearing ; Ben. Act VIII of 1932.

It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Bengal Rhinoceros Preservation (Amendment) Act, 1937.

Amendment of section 4 of Bengal Act VIII of 1932.

2. In section 4 of the Bengal Rhinoceros Preservation Act, 1932 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act) after the word "captured" the words "in Bengal" shall be inserted.

Insertion of new sections 4A and 4B.

3. After section 4 of the said Act the following sections shall be inserted, namely :—

"4A. No person shall without the permission of the Provincial Government possess, sell or buy, or offer to sell or buy, any part of a rhinoceros unless he has reason to believe that such rhinoceros is not the property of the Provincial Government.

Possessing, selling or buying of any part of rhinoceros prohibited.

Explanation.—The expression 'reason to believe' occurring in this section has the meaning assigned to it in section 26 of the Indian Penal Code Act XLV of 1860.

4B. (1) Whoever in contravention of section 4A possesses, sells or buys, or offers to sell or buy, any part of a rhinoceros, shall be punished with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees.

Penalty for contravening section 4A.

(2) Whoever having been convicted of an offence under sub-section (1) of this section is again convicted of an offence thereunder, shall be punished with fine which may extend to two thousand rupees."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Section 4 of the Bengal Rhinoceros Preservation Act, 1932 (Ben. Act VIII of 1932), provides that all parts of a rhinoceros killed or captured otherwise than with the permission of Government are the property of Government. But no provision exists in the Act to make the possession of the body of a rhinoceros or any part of it, such as the horns, illegal though Government may claim it. The object of this Bill is to make express provision in the law prohibiting possession or sale of a rhino-horn or any part of a rhinoceros in Bengal without the permission of the Provincial Government and to provide adequate penalties for the purpose in order to prevent the extinction of the animal.

Notices.

3. If in any case the District Health Officer considers that the issue of a notice under these regulations is likely to lead to such an amount of delay as might facilitate the spread of cholera he may forthwith take such steps as he may think fit for carrying out the work, and shall thereafter, as soon as possible, issue a notice on the person concerned stating the reason why such work has been carried out.

4. If any measure which the District Health Officer has, by a notice issued under these regulations, required to be carried out, be not carried out to his satisfaction within the time stated in the notice the District Health Officer shall be entitled to carry out the measure.

(2) The Board may recover all expenses incurred by the District Health Officer in carrying out the measure under regulation 4 from the person or persons to whom the notice was originally issued.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 23-I.—8th October 1937.—It is hereby notified for general information that in exercise of the powers conferred by sections 6 and 11 of the Bengal Canals Act of 1864 (Bengal Act 5 of 1864), the Governor intends to make the following rules and to fix the following schedule of rates of tolls for the Bauphal-Dwipasa Khal joining the Boga Khal on the west and the Bauphal Khal on the east in the Patuakhali subdivision of the Bakarganj district.

2. The draft will be taken into consideration on or after the 2nd December 1937, and any objections or suggestions received before that date will be considered :—

Rules and schedules of rates of tolls.

1. Every vessel on entering the channel and before passing the gate at either end or even when entering the channel from a side khal between the gates shall be liable to measurement for the purpose of ascertaining the tolls payable; in case of any reasonable doubt arising, a vessel may be measured again by any person appointed by the District Board of Bakarganj on this behalf.

2. Vessels for the purpose of the determination of maundage shall be divided into two classes as below :—

Class I.—To include all vessels of the types of country boats, including saltees and hapors (fish cages), house boats, kosh boats, green boats, etc.

Class II.—To include steam boats, motor boats, flats and barges and other square-built vessels.

3. The maundage of every vessel, whether laden or empty, shall, for the purpose of Act V (B. C.) of 1864 and of these rules, be determined by the following measurements :—

CLASS I.

A. The product of one quarter the length of the vessel from stem to stern, measured along the water line, multiplied by the interior greatest breadth of the vessel, multiplied by the depth from the water-line to the interior bottom of the vessel, is to be taken as equal to the number of maunds upon which tolls shall be levied.

B. The measurement of the length is to be made in feet, rejecting inches; the measurement of breadth and depth is to be made in feet and quarters of a foot, rejecting any remainder of less than a quarter of a foot.

C. The maundage on which the amount of toll is calculated shall be reckoned to the nearest integral multiple of 12½ maunds, any remainder of less than 12½ maunds being rejected. In the case of vessels exceeding 500 maunds by measurement, the maundage shall be reckoned to the nearest integral multiple of 50 maunds, rejecting any remainder of less than 50 maunds.

D. Saltees.—The product of one quarter of the inside length of the vessel, measured along the centre line from stem to stern, multiplied by the interior greatest breadth of the vessel, multiplied by the greatest depth measured from the top to the interior bottom of the vessel, is to be taken as equal to the number of maunds upon which tolls shall be levied.

CLASS II.

For vessels of class II the number of maunds obtained by the system of measurement prescribed for vessels of class I shall be increased by one-half. For vessels of this class above 5,000 maunds measurement, the maundage shall be reckoned to the nearest integral multiple of 500 maunds, rejecting any remainder of less than 500 maunds. In the case of steamers and motor boats the maundage determined as above shall be reduced by one-third as an allowance of engine space.

For vessels of class II which are furnished with reliable way bills, the gross maundage of cargo shown by the way bills or in the case of steamers, the maundage obtained from multiplying the registered tonnage of the steamer by 27, may, at the option of the employer of the vessel or the steamer (as the case may be), be taken as the maundage on which tolls will be charged.

4. After the measurement the person in charge of the vessel shall be provided with a slip showing the maundage to be charged, which must be presented at the toll office where he will be provided with a ticket, after payment of toll, which will permit the vessel to pass the gate or proceed through the channel.

5. Every ticket shall have entered on it the name of the sarang, manjee or other person in charge of the vessel, the date of entry, the maundage, the cargo, the amount of toll charged and the number of days for which the ticket remains current.

6. All tolls are payable on demand and shall be paid at the toll office before a vessel is permitted to proceed.

7. The ticket must be kept on board the vessel and in possession of the person in charge of the vessel and must be produced for inspection when demanded by the person authorised to collect tolls, or by any officer to whom such person is subordinate. If on demand the ticket is not produced, such person or officer shall assess the tollage as provided in rules 3 and 12 and shall require payment of toll, and unless and until the toll is paid, or the original ticket or a duplicate is produced as evidence that toll has already been paid, the vessel shall be liable to seizure and detention under the provisions of section 9 of the Act.

8. Duplicates of lost tickets, of which the numbers and dates can be satisfactorily established, will be granted by the collector of tolls on payment of a fee equal to one quarter of the total tollage, subject to a minimum fee of one anna per ticket.

9. All vessels, whether the property of Government, District Board, other local bodies or of private persons, are liable for toll except those specially exempted under these rules or by a resolution passed by the District Board of Bakarganj from time to time.

10. The canal may be closed once a year for effecting the necessary repairs to it on seven days' notice of the intention so to close it being given; but in the event of any sudden emergency the canal may be closed at any time without prior notice, and no claim in such case by owners of vessels or others for compensation on account of detention shall be entertained.

11. No rafts exceeding 50 feet in length and 5 feet in breadth shall be permitted to enter the canals.

12. The rates of toll shall be as follows:—

(1) On all vessels empty or laden, per hundred maunds	Eight annas.
(2) On all vessels empty or laden, for 12½ maunds or less	One anna.
(3) On rafts of bamboos, grass, timber, etc., not exceeding 50 feet in length and 5 feet in breadth ...	Four annas each raft.

Tolls will be levied at Dwipasa and Bauphal.

13. For boats frequently using the canal, such as boats carrying passengers, grass or perishable articles monthly tickets will be issued at 10 times the ordinary toll.

14. Every vessel which has paid toll shall be allowed to remain in the canal for three days inclusive of the days of entry into and leaving the canal. A vessel remaining in any part of the canal longer than three days shall be charged demurrage equal to one-half of the toll for each day in excess of three days. No vessel shall be permitted to remian in the canal for more than one month. Provided that this rule shall not apply to vessels holding monthly tickets under rule 13 above, which may remain in the canal for more than three days without payment of demurrage but not for more than one month at a time.

15. No vessel carrying exclusively police officers or servants, soldiers and officers of the British Army, post mail runners, officers of the Department of Communications and Works (Irrigation) on duty, officers and servants of the toll office for the canal referred to in these rules while on duty, or the vessels of such other persons as may be exempted by a resolution of the District Board of Bakarganj, shall be liable for toll in the canal.

16. Any matter relating to the mode of collection of tolls and other relevant points, not provided for in these rules, shall be decided by the District Board of Bakarganj at a meeting, and shall be subject to the approval of the local Government.

British protected person of the tribal areas, or a person in the permanent service of the Crown or a person who had retired from that service;

(b) A Ruler or a subject of a State in India or a British protected person of the tribal areas.

Provided that in the case of a British subject the requirements of this rule may be waived by the Secretary of State in Council if he is satisfied that their observance would occasion exceptional hardship, and that the candidate is so closely connected by ancestry and upbringing with His Majesty's dominions as to justify special treatment.

3. The guarantors of a candidate selected for admission to the R. A. F. College will be required to covenant with the Secretary of State in Council that the parent or guardian of the cadet will discharge from his own personal resources all the financial obligations attaching to the training of his son or ward at the Royal Air Force College, Cranwell, and that in the event of failure to comply with certain contingencies set forth in an Indenture relating to the completion of the course at the Royal Air Force College, Cranwell, and thereafter, the acceptance of a commission in the Indian Air Force and the period he is required to hold such a commission, he will pay the full cost which the Government of India shall have expended on the education of the cadet at the Royal Air Force College. Should it be found that the declaration in regard to discharge of financial obligations at the Royal Air Force College is false in any respect, the cadet will be liable to immediate removal from the College.

4. The maximum number of candidate to be admitted to the examination may, in the discretion of the Governor-General in Council, be limited to such number as the Governor-General in Council may decide. If a limit is imposed and the number of candidates exceeds that limit, the Federal Public Service Commission shall select from among the applicants those who shall be admitted to the examination and shall have regard in so doing to the suitability of the applicants for employment as commissioned officers, in the Indian Army and/or Indian Air Force and/or the Royal Indian Navy.

5. A candidate for this examination must have been born not earlier than the 2nd May 1918, and not later than the 1st May 1920.

6. A candidate must be in good mental and bodily health and free from any physical defect likely to interfere with the efficient performance of the duties of a commissioned officer in the Indian Air Force. A candidate who, after examination by a Medical Board (including a special Medical Examination which will include a practical test in flying as a passenger) is found not to satisfy these requirements will not be accepted for admission to the College.*

*Only successful candidates will be medically examined. Candidates are recommended to consult a Civil Surgeon as to their physical suitability before entering for the examination.

7. A candidate must satisfy the Federal Public Service Commission that he is suitable in all respects for employment as a commissioned officer in the Indian Air Force.

8. The decision of the Federal Public Service Commission as to the eligibility or otherwise of a candidate shall be final.

9. No candidate shall be admitted to the examination unless he holds a certificate of admission from the Federal Public Service Commission.

10. Any attempt on the part of the candidate to enlist support for his application will disqualify him for admission to the Royal Air Force College, Cranwell.

11. Candidates must pay the following fees:—

(i) Rs. 7-8-0 with the application form,

(ii) if accepted for admission to the examination, Rs. 50 immediately after the receipt of the certificate of admission.

(Only Treasury Receipts for these amounts will be accepted by the Federal Public Service Commission.)

No claim for a refund of these fees will be entertained, nor will they be held in reserve for a subsequent examination.

12. The examination will include the following subjects and the maximum number of marks obtainable for each subject is as follows:—

Part I.—Obligatory.

		Max. Marks.
1.	Interview and Record ...	500
2.	English Language ...	300

II. Elementary, Lower, or Higher Mathematics—40 per cent.

III. Interview and Record—175 marks.

IV. Aggregate, including interview and record—1,075 marks.

15. From the marks assigned to candidates in each subject such deduction will be made as the Federal Public Service Commission may consider necessary in order to secure that no credit is allowed for merely superficial knowledge.

"provided that the members constituting the board at the time of supersession shall not be eligible at the time of election for the establishment of the board."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The purpose of this amendment is to do away with the nomination to all local bodies and to extend the franchise in such bodies to include all persons who have attained their majority.

The practice of nomination has rendered local self-government a nullity particularly in the rural areas. Because a person can, with the assistance of the nominated members, become the Chairman of the district or local board or a President of union board against the wishes of majority of the electors. This often leads ambitious and designing persons to seek favours of the authorities rather than the support of the electors through meritorious services.

With regard to the franchise it is generally admitted that the wider the basis of representations, the more successful and satisfactory the administration. The reasons for limiting the franchise in the case of the legislation do not hold good in the case of local bodies, and it is imperative for the growth of civic and political consciousness among the masses that there should be adult franchise in local bodies to train them up in the standards of public life and citizenship.

No. 4756L.A.—20th November, 1937.—In pursuance of the provisions of rule 21 of the Bengal Legislative Assembly Rules, the following Bill which was introduced in the Bengal Legislative Assembly on the 16th September, 1937, is hereby published for general information together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons annexed thereto.

THE ADIGANGA IMPROVEMENT BILL, 1937.

BILL

to provide for improvement of both banks of the Adiganga.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make provision for the improvement of both banks of the Adiganga ;

It is hereby enacted as follows :—

1. This Act may be called the Adiganga Improvement Act, 1937.

2. Both banks of the Adiganga beginning from its junction at Kidderpore up to Garia Railway Bridge shall be improved by the Trustees for the improvement of Calcutta, dredging the channel, draining off the stagnant water and constructing metalled roads on both banks.

3. The Local Government shall have power to prevent the pollution of water by the discharge of foul water from mills situated on the banks, of the sewage and storm water from municipal drains, and also to prevent other sources of pollution, in accordance with rules to be framed for this purpose from time to time.

4. The cost of the improvement and maintenance of the works shall be levied from the Calcutta Corporation and District Board of 24-Pargaras to such extent as may be fixed by the Local Government under the rules to be framed.

5. To meet part of the cost of improvement and maintenance of the works, the Provincial Government may impose a terminal tax on pilgrims visiting the Kalighat temple on special occasions and additional rates on owners or occupiers of holdings abutting on the roads constructed along the banks.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Adiganga which is the old channel of the sacred Bhagirathi (Ganges) is in a deplorable condition and both sides are full of slum quarters, ditches and jungle leading to the pollution of the water and making the locality unhealthy and unsightly.

No. 4757L.A.—20th November, 1937.—In pursuance of the provisions of rule 21 of the Bengal Legislative Assembly Rules, the following Bill which was introduced in the Bengal Legislative Assembly on the 16th September, 1937, is hereby published for general information together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons annexed thereto.

THE BENGAL COURT OF WARDS (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1937.

A

BILL

further to amend the Court of Wards Act, 1879.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Court of Wards Act, 1879, in the manner hereinafter appearing; Ben. Act IX of 1879.

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

1. This Act may be called the Bengal Court of Wards (Amendment) Act, 1937.

2. It shall come into force on such date as the Local Government may, by a notification in the Calcutta Gazette, appoint in this behalf.

3. Clause (e) of section 6 of the Court of Wards Act, 1879 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act), be deleted.

4. The present proviso to section 7 of the Act be omitted and in its place the following be substituted:—

"Provided that as soon as any heir of the disqualified proprietor or any co-sharer ward becomes major and not otherwise disqualified, the Court shall release the estate to him."

5. Section 11 of the said Act be repealed.

6. Section 12 of the said Act be repealed.

7. In section 22 of the said Act the words "(if any) with regard to the rank and circumstances of the parties" be substituted by the words "keeping in view the limitation of expenditure, liabilities and income of the estate."

8. The wordings of the section 63 of the said Act be substituted by the following: "Notwithstanding anything contained in any law 'rent' shall not be treated as a subject of public demand even when the person demanding rent is Court of Wards or any employee under the same."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The idea of Court of Wards was in the beginning to manage the estate of the minor or female or physically unfit proprietors of land with a view to keep the arrangement made by the Permanent Settlement intact and collection of revenue of the State unaffected. Now the position has been that when any proprietor applies to the Government for managing his estate, the Government, if they do not find any objection, generally take over the management of his estate, save it by clearing the debts, and give relief to the proprietor (however able he might be of the management of his estate) at the cost of the tenants. This uncalled for help of the Government to the proprietors has encouraged them to be extravagant and careless.

The gross rental collected from the raiyats amounts to nearly Rs. 17 crores, while the land revenue of Bengal is only about Rs. 3 crores. The proprietors and other middle interests absorb Rs. 14 crores of the revenue of the State for collection of only Rs. 3 crores. The time has come when the position should change for the better.

The zemindars or talukdars should now be left to themselves and no helping hand of the State should be extended to them when they suffer from their own carelessness and extravagance, just as it is not done when the raiyats are in trouble.

So proposals have been made in this Bill to do away with clause (e) of section 6 of the Court of Wards Act, 1879, which empowers the Government to take up the management of those proprietors, who, though otherwise qualified, cannot manage their estate properly. If this clause is deleted, the Government will be able to buy up the estates of those proprietors (excepting females, minors and physically unfit ones) who cannot manage their estates at a nominal cost. Thus gradually the system of State Ownership of Land will be able to replace the Permanent Settlement without disturbing the equilibrium of the society.

The estate of any disqualified proprietor should be kept under the management of Court of Wards so long as there is none of his family qualified to manage it. As soon as any heir or co-sharer proprietor becomes qualified, Government should release the estate to him. To effect this, the proviso to section 7 of the Act has been substituted by a new one.

Every effort should be made to release the estates which have been taken over by the Court of Wards for management, as soon as possible. A disqualified proprietor should only be given a bare subsistence allowance and no consideration should be made of his status and mode of living previous to his estate coming under the (Government) Court of Wards. So long as his estate has not recovered the capacity of a good payment to him after clearing off his debts and liabilities, no luxury should be allowed to the disqualified proprietor and his family.

The Court of Wards taking over the management causes so much hardship to the tenants and raiyats of the estate in the matter of realisation of rents and arrears through the procedure of certification that many of them are crushed for ever and many are reduced to extreme poverty. It will only be fair if certificate procedure is not allowed to the cases of realisation of rents from the raiyats; more so when the ordinary law is sufficient for the purpose. So section 63 of the said Act has been proposed to be changed.

THE BENGAL TOBACCO (SALES LICENSING) (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1937.

to amend the Bengal Tobacco (Sales Licensing) Act, 1935.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Bengal Tobacco (Sales Licensing) Act, 1935, in the manner hereinafter appearing; Ben. Act XIV of 1935.

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Amendment of section 4. 2. In section 4 after the words "no person shall sell wholesale" the words "or retail" shall be omitted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Persons who will sell tobacco retail are generally poor and petty tobacco sellers. These persons seldom can make an income equal to the sum they are to pay as license-fee during the whole year. As a result of this Act, these petty tobacco sellers have got to wind up their business. It is in order to prevent this that this short amendment is proposed.

(4) It shall apply to all classes of tenants as set forth in Chapter II of the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885. Act VIII of 1885.

2. The existing rate of rent and all rents (together with interest thereon) which are in arrears for four years and for any lesser period, on 14th April, 1938, from any tenant shall be reduced by fifty per cent. and no landlord shall be entitled to realise any such rent (together with interest thereon) in excess of the amount hereby prescribed, and no Court shall pass any decree in any suit for any such rent pending before or after 14th April, 1938, in excess of the amount hereby prescribed and no damages shall be awarded in respect of the amount of rent decreed.

3. (1) Any decree for rent obtained before 14th April, 1938, but put into execution afterwards shall be executed only for fifty per cent. of the total amount decreed (including interest, damages and costs) minus any amount which may have been received from the tenants by the decree-holder.

(2) Any execution proceeding in respect of any such decree pending on 14th April, 1938, in which no sale has yet taken place shall be proceeded with only for fifty per cent. of the total amount decreed (including interest, damages and cost) minus any amount received from the tenant by the decree-holder.

(3) Any sale of immoveable property of a tenant in execution of any such decree in which a decree-holder landlord has become the purchaser shall be set aside if within six months from 14th April, 1938, a tenant judgment-debtor deposits in Court the total decretal amount (including interest, damages and cost) calculated at the aforesaid reduced rate minus any amount received from the tenant by the decree-holder:

The Bengal Emergency Rent Reduction Bill, 1937.

(Clause 4.)

Provided that no order for setting aside a sale under this sub-section shall be passed by a Court unless notice has been given to all persons affected thereby:

Provided further that no order for setting aside a sale under this sub-section shall be passed if before the 1st September, 1937, the auction-purchaser landlord has settled the entire sold lands to any tenant by accepting registered kabuliyat.

4. The provisions of the Bengal Tenancy Act, Civil Procedure Code or any other Act inconsistent with the provisions of this Act shall be suspended so long as this Act remains in force.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

It is well-known fact that owing to economic depression it has become extremely difficult for all classes of tenants governed by the Bengal Tenancy Act to provide for bare food and clothing for their families and in consequence huge arrears of rents have accumulated against them. In many cases decrees for rents have been passed and they are being put to execution. The Bengal Agricultural Debtors Act has made no provision for reduction of rent. This Bill is, therefore, intended to give temporary relief to all classes of tenants governed by the Bengal Tenancy Act so that they may tide over their present economic crisis. The superior landlords will also derive indirect benefit by the provisions of this Bill, because it will enable the tenants to wipe off their debts on account of rent payable to their landlords and this will pave the way for regular payment of rents in future. This Bill is a temporary piece of legislation and it will not, therefore, take away the rights of any class of landlords.

Amendment of section 56.

19. In section 56, sub-section (1), clause (b), the following proviso shall be added, namely :—

"provided that the period shall never exceed one year."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The purpose of the Bill is to do away with nomination in local bodies and also to extend the franchise to include all adult persons within the area under the control of a local body.

The reasons for such amendment are obvious. One of the purposes of local self-government is to associate the people in the administration of their own affairs and thus train them in methods of Government. Nomination cuts across the principle of representation, and the system as it now obtains leads to the anomalous position in which a person in spite of the opposition of the majority of elected members in the local body may be, and often is, elected Chairman of the district board or President of union board, with the help of the nominated members. This encourages ambitious and designing persons to court the favour of local officials in order to secure their position, instead of attempting to win the confidence of their electorate through useful and hard work.

With regard to the extension of franchise, it is generally admitted that the representation should be as wide as possible. Another innovation is the enfranchisement of women. Female franchise has been given in municipalities and in the matter of election to the legislatures and it is anomalous therefore that they should remain unfranchised in the matter of local board elections. In these days of emancipation of women when the womenfolk of the country are taking part in higher spheres of political activities, it is meet and proper that women should also have their say in the administration of local bodies.

The repeal of section 36A intends to do away with the provision for abolition of local boards. Local boards in bigger districts serve their useful purposes and in the outlying subdivisions give facilities to local men of influence in participating in the administration of small public bodies. Provisions for abolition of local boards may give a handle to some district board members to throttle the aspiration of many influencial men in outlying areas. Besides, the district board will find it difficult to maintain an uniformity in the administration of a wider area when work will be multiplied by having to take over the work hitherto done by local boards.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 4762L.A.—18th November, 1937.—In pursuance of the provisions of rule 21 of the Bengal Legislative Assembly Rules, the following Bill which was introduced in the Bengal Legislative Assembly on the 16th September, 1937, is hereby published for general information together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons annexed thereto.

THE BENGAL MEDICAL (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1937.

A

BILL

further to amend the Bengal Medical Act, 1914.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Bengal Medical Act, 1914, for the purposes hereinafter appearing; Ben. Act VI of 1914.

AND WHEREAS the previous sanction of the Governor under sub-section (i) of section 119 of the Government of India Act has been obtained to the passing of this Act; 26 Geo. V, ch. 2.

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

PRELIMINARY.

Short title, extent and commencement.

1. (a) This Act may be called the Bengal Medical (Amendment) Act, 1937.

(b) It extends to the whole of Bengal.

(c) It shall come into force immediately.

Amendment of section 17.

2. In section 17 insert the following as the first proviso, namely:—

Provided that the Governor in Council of Ministers may permit the registration of:—

(a) Any person who had undergone a full course of training at least for four years in any medical college or school, obtained a certificate to that effect from the head of such college or school and was practising as a medical practitioner on the date when the Act came into force: provided he passes a special examination such as the Medical Council may hold for the purpose of granting registration.

(b) Any person who had obtained proper training at least for four years in any medical institute which was subsequently affiliated to the State Medical Faculty of Bengal and joined the profession before the 5th September, 1935: provided he passes a special examination such as the Medical Council may hold for the purpose of granting registration.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

From some time past it has been felt that the provisions of the Bengal Medical Act, 1914, are causing much hardship to a large number of persons who, though properly trained from sources other than those recognised by the authorities and though they had been actually practising Medicine, Surgery and Midwifery from before 1914, cannot get themselves registered and thus become qualified medical practitioners. The glaring example of this is the case of the students of the National Medical Institute, with the Chittaranjan Hospital attached to it. The students of this institute completed their five years' college course before this institution was affiliated to the State Medical Faculty. The students remain unqualified though properly trained up for this petty technical reason of non-registration. Practitioners with similar qualification in other provinces, viz., Bombay, the Punjab, the United Provinces, Madras, Burma, etc., have been given the privilege of registration long ago, either by amendments of the Acts of the respective provinces or by Government notification. In Bengal nothing in this direction has been done up to date. The redress sought for may be given by simple amendment of Medical Act, and the object of the present Bill is to make this amendment.

The Bengal Medical Act, 1914, in seeking to protect the public against quacks, omitted to make provision for the safety of those doctors who had obtained diplomas and certificates from various well-organised and efficient medical institutions before the passing of the Act, who had been practising with ability and reputation for a long time and who could by no stretch of language be called quacks, with the result that these able, experienced and well-reputed doctors have been classed among the quacks. Many of them have been thrown out of employment from hospitals, tea gardens, ships, steamers, etc., debarred from granting certificates of birth or of illness and handicapped in many other ways, e.g., in procuring for their patients the requisite drugs included in the schedule of poisons. The transitory provision by Government for an examination of these doctors by the State Medical Faculty was in force only for two years from the passing of the Bengal Medical Act, 1914. The time was too short for the majority to avail themselves of the concession and moreover a good many did not even get the necessary information within the period. Such people are now on the brink of starvation. Many of them have outgrown the age at which a change of avocation is possible.

The case of those who have obtained the proper training in unrecognised medical institutions since 1914, stands on a similar footing. Several unregistered doctors who have received their training in such institutions are now serving tea gardens, coal mines, etc., and have been highly spoken of by their superior officers both Indian and European. Some of these unrecognised institutions have since been recognised, but the students who completed their course of education therein and began to practise before such recognition, have been left in the lurch. We, therefore, find good doctors trained at the same institution, one set of whom, the older and more experienced set, are unqualified for want of registration, while another set are qualified by registration. Under these circumstances it is but fair and equitable that such students should be given at least one chance of being qualified. Hence the necessity of this Medical Bill.

(2) The export quota of a tea estate, that is, the total quantity of tea which may be exported by the owner of the tea estate during the financial year, shall be an amount bearing to the crop basis of the estate as determined in the prescribed manner by the Committee the same proportion as the Indian export allotment for the financial year in question bears to the total of the crop basis of all tea estates in India for that year.

(2) Where any return required under sub-section (1) in respect of any tea estate is not furnished within the period specified in the notice, the Committee may refuse to allot a quota to that estate under section 14, or, where a quota has already been allotted, may cancel the unexhausted balance of that quota and refuse to issue any further export licences under section 16 against that quota or to recognise or give effect to any transfer under section 15.

21. (1) The Committee may serve by post a notice upon any person claiming to be the owner of any tea estate or upon his agent or manager or upon any person claiming to be the agent or the manager of the owner of any tea estate requiring him to furnish, within such period as may be specified in the notice or within such extended period as the Committee may allow, such documentary or other evidence as may be required to prove to the satisfaction of the Committee that such person is the owner of such tea estate or is the agent or manager of the owner of a tea estate, as the case may be.

(2) Where any person fails to comply with the requirements of a notice served on him under sub-section (1) or where the evidence furnished by such person is insufficient to prove to the satisfaction of the Committee that such person is the owner of the tea estate of which he claims to be the owner or is the agent or manager of the owner of a tea estate, as the case may be, the Committee may refuse to issue to such person or to his agent or manager any export licences against the quota allotted to such tea estate.

Fees.

22. (1) The Committee may charge and collect the following fees, namely:—

(a) a licence fee for every export licence or special export licence or permit issued by it, at such rates, not exceeding two rupees per thousand pounds of tea or part thereof covered by the licence or permit, as the Central Government may, on the recommendation of the Committee by notification in the official Gazette, fix in this behalf; and

25. Where legislation enacted in any Indian State has made provision in pursuance of the agreement implemented by and in consonance with the provisions contained in this Act for the control of the export of tea from and for the control of the extension of the cultivation of tea in the State, the Committee shall issue export licences, special export licences and permits for the export or carriage out of British India of tea produced in any such State in the same manner and subject to the same incidents as such licences or permits are issued in respect of tea produced in British India.

CHAPTER III.

CONTROL OVER THE EXTENSION OF TEA CULTIVATION.

Method of control of extension of tea cultivation.

26. So long as this Act remains in force, no person shall, save in pursuance of a written permission granted by or on behalf of the Committee, plant tea on any land whether included in the area of a tea estate or not, except land which was on the 31st day of March, 1938, and had on that date been continuously for the two years immediately preceding, planted with tea; and no person shall without such permission extend the area planted with tea in any tea estate, or replace any area planted with tea by a new area so planted:

Provided that nothing contained in this section shall prohibit the in-filling or supplying of vacancies by the owner of a tea estate within the area of the estate on land which was planted with tea on the 31st day of March, 1938, or the replanting of tea upon land planted with tea on the 31st day of March, 1938, from which the original bushes have been uprooted, or upon land planted with tea on the 31st day of March, 1936, from which the original bushes have been subsequently up-rooted and which is on the 31st day of March, 1938, lying fallow in accordance with normal planting practice.

Limitations to the extension of tea cultivation.

27. (1) Subject to the provisions of section 29 and section 30, the total area of land in British India, in respect of which the permissions referred to in section 26 may be granted, shall not exceed one-half of one per cent. of the total area of the land planted with tea in British India on the 31st day of March, 1938.

(2) Subject to the provisions of section 29 and section 30, the total area of land in any Province, in respect of which such permissions may be granted, shall be determined by the Committee and shall be as near as may be one-half of one per cent. of the total area in the Province which was planted with tea on the 31st day of March, 1938.

(3) The Committee shall publish the total areas so determined for the various Provinces by notification in the official Gazette of the Central Government as soon as may be after the commencement of this Act.

Grant of permission to plant tea.

28. (1) Applications for permission to plant tea on any land not planted with tea on the 31st day of March, 1938, shall be made to the Committee not later than six months from the commencement of this Act and shall contain a clear statement of all special circumstances justifying the application.

(2) Subject to the limits laid down in section 27, the Committee may grant or refuse the permission applied for or may grant it in part only, or may call for further information from the applicant.

(3) No order by the Committee under sub-section (2) shall be called in question by any Court.

Grant of permission to plant tea in special circumstances.

29. (1) Where any land which was on the 31st day of March, 1933, planted with tea—

(a) has since become wholly incapable of carrying tea through subsidence, flood, erosion, earthquake or other irresistible superhuman cause, or

(b) has since been compulsorily acquired under the provisions of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894, or of any other law for the time being in force and no longer carries tea, I of 1894.

the owner of the tea estate in which such land was situated may apply to the Committee for permission to plant tea on land not planted with tea.

(2) Upon such application being made and upon proof to the satisfaction of the Committee that the applicant is entitled to the benefit of sub-section (1), the Committee may grant permission to plant tea on land not planted with tea:

Provided that the area of land, in respect of which such permission is granted, shall be within the area of the same tea estate and shall not exceed in extent the area of the land incapable of carrying tea or compulsorily acquired, as the case may be.

(3) All areas of land in respect of which permission to plant tea is granted under this section shall be excluded when computing for the purposes of section 27 the total area of land in respect of which the permissions referred to in section 26 may be granted.

Tea nurseries.

30. (1) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (4), the owner of a tea estate may, with the previous permission of the Committee, establish nurseries on land not previously planted with tea for the growing of plants intended for in-filling or supplying vacancies or for replanting land planted with tea within the area of the estate or for any other purpose approved by the Committee:

Provided that the total area utilised for nurseries in British India shall not upon the 31st day of March, 1943, exceed tea area so utilised in British India on the 31st day of March, 1933.

(2) All areas of land utilised for nurseries in accordance with this section shall be excluded when computing for the purposes of section 27 the total area of land in respect of which the permissions referred to in section 26 may be granted.

(3) The Committee may at any time serve by post a notice upon the owner of any tea estate or upon his manager requiring him to furnish within such period not being less than thirty days as may be specified in the notice such returns relating to the area of the land utilised for nurseries as it may deem necessary.

(4) If any return required under sub-section (2) is not furnished to the Committee within the period specified in the notice or if in the opinion of the Committee the total area of the land utilised for nurseries is excessive, the Committee may make such restrictive or other order as it deems necessary and in particular may order the uprooting of any bushes planted on any such land.

Appeal to Provincial Government.

31. (1) Any applicant aggrieved by an order of the Committee under section 28, section 29 or section 30 may appeal to the Provincial Government within sixty days from the date thereof and the Provincial Government may cancel, modify or suspend any such order.

(2) The records of the Committee relating to proceedings under this Chapter shall be open to inspection at all reasonable times by any officer authorised in this behalf by the Provincial Government.

Power of the Committee to call for returns and to inspect.

32. (1) The Committee may at any time serve by post a notice upon the owner of any tea estate or upon his manager requiring him to furnish within such period not being less than thirty days as may be specified in the notice such returns relating to the cultivation of tea on the estate as it may deem necessary.

(2) Any member of the Committee and any officer of the Committee or person authorised by it in this behalf may at any reasonable time enter upon and inspect the lands of any tea estate and may require the owner of the estate to produce for inspection any records of the estate in his control or custody relating to the cultivation of tea on the estate.

(3) Where any return required under sub-section (1) in respect of any tea estate is not furnished to the Committee within the period specified in the notice, the Committee may refuse to grant any permission under section 28 to plant tea on that estate.

CHAPTER IV.

PENALTIES AND PROCEDURE.

Penalty for illicit export.

33. A breach of the provisions of sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) of section 19 shall be punishable as if it were an offence under Item No. 8 of section 167 of the Sea Customs Act, 1878, and the provisions of section 168 and of Chapter XVII of that Act shall apply accordingly. VIII of 1878.

Penalty for making false return.

34. Any owner of a tea estate, or his agent or manager, who has furnished any return under sub-section (1) of section 20, or under sub-section (3) of section 30, or under sub-section (1) of section 32, containing any particular which is false and which he knew to be false or did not believe to be true, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees.

Penalty for obstructing inspection of tea estate.

35. Whoever obstructs any member or officer of the Committee or any person authorised by the Committee, while such member, officer or person is entering upon or inspecting the lands of any tea estate under sub-section (2) of section 32, and whoever, having control over or custody of any records of a tea estate relating to the cultivation of tea on that estate, refuses or fails to produce such records when required by a member or officer of the Committee or by a person authorised by the Committee under that sub-section, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees.

Penalty for illicit cultivation.

36. (1) Whoever plants tea or causes tea to be planted in any land in contravention of section 26 shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees for the first offence, and with fine which may extend to five thousand rupees for any subsequent offence.

(2) Whoever uses any land for nurseries or causes any land to be so used, without the previous permission of the Committee or in contravention of any order made by the Committee under section 30, or fails to comply with any order made by the Committee under sub-section (4) of section 30, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees.

Removal of tea planted without permission.

37. Where any person has been convicted of any offence under section 36, the convicting Court may direct that the tea in respect of which the offence was committed shall be removed from the land within a specified time, and, in the event of the order not being duly complied with, may cause the tea to be removed and may recover the cost from the person convicted as if it were arrears of land revenue due on the tea estate on which the offence was committed.

Trial of offences under sections 34, 35 and 36.

38. (1) No Magistrate other than a Magistrate of the first class shall take cognisance of an offence under section 34, section 35 or section 36, and such Magistrate may take cognisance of an offence only upon complaint made by a person authorised by the Committee and with the previous sanction of the Central Government, where the offence is that of furnishing a false return under sub-section (1) of section 20, and of the Provincial Government in any other case.

(2) The Committee shall be responsible for the conduct of all prosecutions of offences under section 34, section 35 and section 36.

CHAPTER V.

SAVINGS.

Savings.

39. Notwithstanding the expiry of the Indian Tea Control Act, 1933, and notwithstanding the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 9 of that Act,— XXIV of 1933.

(a) the unexpended balance of fees received by the Indian Tea Licensing Committee constituted under that Act shall not lapse to Government but shall be transferred to the Indian Tea Licensing Committee as constituted under section 3 of this Act;

(b) until provision is otherwise made under the corresponding provisions of this Act, all fees fixed, all licences and permits issued and all quotas allotted under the Indian Tea Control Act, 1933, shall, unless inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, be deemed to have been fixed, issued or allotted under this Act; and XXIV of 1933.

(c) any offence punishable under the Indian Tea Control Act, 1933, shall be punishable and may be dealt with as if it were an offence punishable under the corresponding provision of this Act. XXIV of 1933.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The existing International Scheme for regulation of the export of tea and for the control of extension of tea cultivation expires on the 31st March, 1938. The Indian Tea Control Act, 1933, which was passed to give effect to the scheme in British India, will also expire on the same date.

2. Representatives of the tea industry in India, Ceylon and the Netherlands Indies have executed an agreement providing for the renewal of the scheme for a further period of five years from the 1st April, 1938. After careful consultation with the various interests affected and the Provincial Governments as well as the Indian States concerned the Central Government have decided to give official recognition to the renewed tea control scheme. The specific consent of the Provincial Governors has also been obtained to legislation being undertaken in the Central Legislature regarding the control of extension of tea cultivation which subject falls within the Provincial Legislative List under the new constitution.

3. There has been unanimity of opinion that the control scheme has been beneficial to the tea industry in India and the proposals for legislation have the support of 99 per cent. of the industry. The draft Bill is designed to give legislative sanction to the operation of the renewed scheme for a period of five years from the 1st April, 1938. It may be mentioned that the other parties concerned, namely, the Governments of Ceylon and the Netherlands Indies, have already agreed to adhere to the renewed scheme.

RESOLUTION—No 4199Pl.

Calcutta, the 19th November 1937.

Read—

The Report on the Police Administration of the Bengal Presidency for the year 1936.

Mr. J. C. Farmer held the office of the Inspector-General of Police throughout the year.

2. The Eastern Frontier Rifles.—The battalion maintained its usual high standard of efficiency and discipline under its Commandant, Lt.-Col. Dallas-Smith, and Major J. K. Jones, who was in command from the 5th May to the 17th October 1936, while the Commandant was on leave.

3. Strength, health and discipline.—The strength of the permanent forces (including the Eastern Frontier Rifles) at the close of the year was 24,955 officers and men against 24,978 of the previous year. The reduction in the strength is mainly due to the replacement of 20 Reader Sub-Inspectors by clerks.

The total number of constables recruited during the year was 1,556, of whom 644 were Bengalis, against 1,232 in 1935, of whom 522 were Bengalis. Henceforward it is proposed to recruit only Bengalis for the unarmed force, but Biharis and men of other provinces will continue to be recruited for the Special Armed Force. It is gratifying to note that Bengali candidates with requisite educational and other qualifications are coming forward for enlistment as constables.

The health of the lower ranks of the force showed no marked improvement, but it is satisfactory to note that the steady progress which was made in the last few years has been maintained. In 1933, the total number of admissions into hospitals was 15,044, while in 1936 the number fell to 11,647.

The number of officers and men judicially punished, excluding those dealt with under the Police Act, was 28—one less than the figure of the previous year. The number of those departmentally punished rose from 8,916 to 10,497, an increase which, taken in conjunction with the fact that the number of complaints instituted against the police by private individuals showed a decrease from 247 in 1935 to 204 during the year under report, indicates the high standard of discipline demanded by the supervising staff.

Out of the 166 cases of private complaints disposed of during the year, only 19 ended in conviction, 49 resulted in acquittal or discharge, and as many as 98 cases were dismissed.

Thirty-seven civil suits were instituted against police officers, of which 11 were dismissed, 12 were decreed, and the rest were pending at the close of the year.

4. Police buildings.—Improvement in the housing of the force is admittedly an urgent necessity. To enable this problem to be tackled more satisfactorily, larger powers have been delegated to the Inspector-General in the matter of sanctioning expenditure on building projects. It is hoped that this procedure will result in the gradual improvement of police buildings.

5. Crime statistics.—The number of non-cognizable cases increased from 124,213 to 129,077, but the number of cognizable cases fell by 1,249 from 87,872 to 86,623. The number of serious crimes, it is satisfactory to note, fell by 1,221 from 43,052 to 41,831. A fall in riot, murder, dacoity, robbery and burglary cases was mainly responsible for this decrease in serious crime. The respective figures for the above categories for the year under report were 581, 503, 1,131, 487 and 24,506, against 671, 554, 1,242, 552 and 26,149, respectively, during the previous year. It is gratifying to note that the progressive decrease in the number of dacoities, which was noticed last year, has been well maintained.

The effective use of Village Defence Parties has been noticed with interest, and it is hoped that the assistance obtained from these bodies, supplemented by that of the rural police, will enable further improvements to be made in the future. It is noted with regret that the number of instances in which active resistance was offered to dacoits shows a decrease, the figures being 56 against 101 of the previous year.

A marked improvement is noticeable in respect of dacoities committed in riverine areas, the figure being 11 against 35 in the previous year. This is

An initial premium shall be charged on the lease and the lease shall be put up to public auction for sale to the person who agrees to pay the highest amount as premium.

(3) When a lease comes up for renewal at the end of the first or subsequent term of years, an indenture for such renewal shall be executed in the form prescribed in Schedule IV.

Procedure on rejection by the Officer Commanding the Station.—The Military Estates Officer shall lay the application before the Officer Commanding the Station and the Officer Commanding the Station may reject the application for reasons to be recorded in writing which shall be entered on the application form and the form shall be filled in the manner prescribed by rule 29. The decision of the Officer Commanding the Station shall be communicated to the applicant.

19. Procedure on acceptance by the Officer Commanding the Station. Fixing of rent and reserve price of premium.—(1) If the Officer Commanding the Station approves of the application, the Military Estates Officer shall proceed to have the site surveyed and demarcated, if necessary, and shall fix the annual rent to be charged in accordance with the rate prescribed by the standard table of rents prepared under rule 8 and such reserve price for the premium on the lease as may appear to be reasonable.

(2) In no case shall the reserve price so fixed be disclosed to the public or the annual rent be charged at a lower rate than that fixed by the standard table of rents.

20. Survey and demarcation.—(1) The reserve price shall be calculated so as to include the cost, if any, of surveying and demarcating the site and a proportion of any expenditure that may have been incurred in preparing and laying out the land, including the site under application, for building purposes.

21. Notice of Auction.—The Military Estates Officer shall then publish a notice, in the form prescribed in Schedule VI stating the date on which, the time and place at which and the conditions under which, the lease of the site applied for will be sold.

Thereafter the proceedings shall be forwarded to the Officer Commanding-in-Chief, the Command, or to such other authority as the Central Government may appoint for the purpose, for his approval, and if the Officer Commanding-in-Chief, the Command, or the appointed authority, approves, the sale shall be deemed to be duly confirmed:

Provided that, if the estimated market value of the site exceeds Rs. 10,000, the approval of the Central Government shall also be required before the sale shall be deemed to be duly confirmed.

Explanation—For the purposes of this rule, the market value shall be estimated, as far as possible, on the basis of actual sales of unoccupied land for building purposes in the locality, but if the market value cannot be estimated on such basis, it shall be taken to mean twenty times the annual value of the site. In calculating the annual value, the rent fixed, as well as the premium realised by the auction shall be taken into account.

25. Powers of Collector.—(1) On receipt of the proceedings forwarded to him under rule 24 the Collector, before expressing his concurrence, shall satisfy himself,

(a) that the whole proceedings have been conducted in strict accordance with the provisions of these rules, and

(b) that the annual rent and the price realised for the premium on the lease at the auction is reasonable.

(2) If the Collector is not satisfied on either of these points he shall return the proceedings to the Military Estates Officer with a recommendation that the proceedings be cancelled; and thereupon fresh proceedings shall be taken and all the foregoing provisions of this rule shall apply to such fresh proceedings.

(3) If the Collector considers that the disposal of the site itself is for any reason prejudicial to the public interest, he may return the proceedings to the Military Estates Officer with a statement of his reasons for doing so and a request that the matter may be reconsidered in accordance with his recommendations.

(4) If the Officer Commanding the Station disagrees with the recommendations of the Collector, the proceedings shall be submitted for the orders of the Officer Commanding-in-Chief, the Command, if the estimated market value of the site does not exceed Rs. 5,000, or of the Central Government in all other cases.

26. Disposal of Lease by Private Agreement.—Notwithstanding anything contained in rules 16 to 24, the Military Estates Officer may, in exceptional cases for exceptional reasons to be recorded in writing, and subject to the approval of the Central Government, or such other authority as the Central Government may appoint for this purpose, dispense with the deposit of the cost of survey and demarcation, as prescribed by rule 20, or with the auction of the lease, as prescribed by rule 22, or with both, and may lease any site by private agreement, at such rate of rent, and on payment of such premium, as the Central Government or the appointed authority may approve in each case:

Provided that the concurrence of the Collector and the approval by the Officer Commanding the Station shall be obtained before application is made for the approval of the Central Government or the appointed authority.

27. Special Lease for the Regularization of Old Grants.—Notwithstanding anything contained in rules 16 to 26, the Military Estates Officer in any case where a site is held without a regular lease, may on application by the holder, without any reference to any superior authority, grant a lease for the said site in the form set out in Schedule VII.

28. Execution of Leases.—(1) As soon as the auction has been duly confirmed, the successful applicant shall be required to execute a lease for the site in the form prescribed in Schedule VIII.

31. Leases for special periods and on special terms.—(1) A lease for a building site for a period not exceeding 30 years or a lease in perpetuity, may be granted by the Military Estates Officer in the forms prescribed in Schedules IX and X, where for special reasons such a course appears to be advantageous to the Central Government:

Provided that no such lease shall be granted without previous consultation with the Collector and the previous sanction of the Central Government:

Provided also that in every other respect the procedure prescribed in rules 16 to 30 shall apply.

(2) A lease of a building site in perpetuity may, if the site is needed for a definite public or religious purpose and the use of the more favourable form of lease prescribed in Schedule XI is justifiable, be granted by the Military Estates Officer in the form prescribed in Schedule XI and in the manner prescribed in rule 26:

Amendment of schedule VIII.

9. In schedule VIII—Tax on carriages and animals of the said Act, the figures 12 against item 6, 8 against item 7, 6 against item 8, 6 against item 11, and 6 against item 13 shall be substituted by the figures 8, 6, 4, 4, and 4, respectively.

Amendment of schedule IX.

10. In schedule IX—Part II—Rates of fee for licenses of the said Act, figures against the first three items shall be substituted by the following figures respectively, namely :—
4, 4, 1.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

A large section of the Mussalman community in Calcutta abstained from participating in the last election of the Calcutta Corporation. This is a situation which is most unfortunate. With a view to securing the whole-hearted and willing co-operation of all sections of that community, it has become imperatively necessary to amend some sections of the Calcutta Municipal Act of 1923, in a manner satisfactory to all concerned. The Draft Bill, therefore, seeks without unduly trenching on the legitimate rights of others, to introduce such reforms as are calculated to secure the fullest co-operation of all sections of the Moslem community—a co-operation which is vitally essential for the proper administration of the municipal affairs of Calcutta and its suburbs.

The Bill also seeks to redress a grievance arising out of the burden of taxation in respect of hackney-carriage horses in Calcutta by reducing slightly some of the taxes enumerated in schedules VIII and IX of the said Act.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 4910L.A.—26th November, 1937.—In pursuance of the provisions of rule 21 of the Bengal Legislative Assembly Rules, the following Bill which was introduced in the Bengal Legislative Assembly on the 16th September, 1937, is hereby published for general information together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons annexed thereto.

THE BENGAL AGRICULTURAL DEBTORS (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1937.

A

to amend the Bengal Agricultural Debtors Act, 1935.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Bengal Agricultural Debtors Act, 1935, in the manner hereinafter appearing; Ben. Act VII of 1936.

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title. 1. This Act may be called the Bengal Agricultural Debtors (Amendment) Act, 1937.

2. It shall come into force on such date as the Provincial Government may, by notification in the Calcutta Gazette, appoint in this behalf.

3. In sub-section (5) of section 8 of the Bengal Agricultural Debtors Act, 1935 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act), the words "a Board may for good and sufficient reason entertain a further application in respect of any debt" shall be substituted by the words "a Board may for good and sufficient reason allow an applicant to amend his application in respect of any debt."

4. In clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 9 of the said Act, in place of the words "an ancestral," the words "a predecessor's" shall be substituted.

5. In sub-section (2) of section 9 of the said Act, the words "if so empowered under section 7" shall be deleted.

6. In sub-section (2) of section 18 of the said Act the words "if so empowered under section 7" shall be deleted.

7. In clause (b) of sub-section (1) of section 19 of the said Act, for the words "forty per cent." the words "twenty per cent." shall be substituted and the words "if it is so empowered under section 7" shall be deleted.

8. In the second paragraph of section 21 of the said Act, the words "in excess of simple interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum on the principal of such debt as determined under sub-section (2) of section 18" shall be deleted.

9. In proviso to sub-section (5) of section 22 of the said Act, for the words "five years" the words "two years" shall be substituted.

10. Section 48 of the said Act shall be deleted.

11. After section 56 of the said Act the following sections shall be added, namely:—

"57. An application under section 8 (1) by a debtor or section 8 (2) by a creditor may be amended before the hearing commences by the Board of its own motion or on the application of the parties, if the Board is satisfied that the amendment is necessary for the ends of justice.

The Bengal Agricultural Debtors (Amendment) Bill, 1937.

(Clause 11.)

58. On the death of the applicant or any of the applicants, the creditors or any of the creditors, their heirs may be substituted within 40 days on application by the heirs of the deceased.

59. Dues under an award may be paid to the creditors by postal money-order.

60. The Board may, if satisfied on evidence or otherwise, order for the full or part satisfaction of the dues of the usufructuary mortgagees or mortgagees by conditional sale whether these creditors hold under registered or unregistered deeds and may further order that the aforesaid mortgagees shall vacate the mortgaged land in terms of the order of the Board and any breach thereof shall be punishable with fine which may extend to rupees hundred."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Clause (3).—The entertaining of an additional application brings in additional complication without any benefit, hence provision should be made for amendment.

Clause (40).—The word predecessor is more general and covers cases not covered by the word ancestor.

Clauses (5), (6) and (7).—The powers under these sections are essentially necessary for the proper running of the Boards, so these powers should not be held up. Only powers under sections 21 and 22 may be withheld from ordinary Boards. The percentage in section 19 (b) is high, so it needs change.

Clause (8).—The creditors owing to the fact that they are entitled to interest do not generally come to agreement, hence the necessity of the deletion.

Clause (9).—Publication is redundant.

Clause (11).—There are no provisions in the Act for amendment or substitution and hence these provisions should be incorporated (vide proposed sections 57 and 58). There is no provision in the Act for the payment of the dues under the award (vide proposed section 59), and hence the necessity for this. The proposed section 60 is intended to facilitate the enforcement of awards in mortgage cases.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 4911L.A.—26th November, 1937.—In pursuance of the provisions of rule 21 of the Bengal Legislative Assembly Rules, the following Bill which was introduced in the Bengal Legislative Assembly on the 16th September, 1937, is hereby published for general information together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons annexed thereto.

THE BENGAL MONEY-LENDERS (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1937.

A

to amend the Bengal Money-Lenders Act, 1933.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Bengal Money-Lenders Act, 1933, in the manner hereinafter appearing ; Ben. Act VII of 1933.

It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Bengal Money-Lenders (Amendment) Act, 1937.

Amendment of section 3 of Bengal Act VII of 1933.

2. In section 3 the words "six per cent. per annum" and the words "nine per cent. per annum" be substituted for the words "fifteen per cent. per annum" and "twenty-five per cent. per annum" respectively wherever they occur in the section.

Amendment of section 4.

3. In section 4 the words "arrears of" be deleted and the words " of a loan " be inserted between the words " interest " and " amount " and the words " unless it is satisfied that the money-lender had reasonable grounds for not enforcing his claim earlier " be also deleted and the words "together with any interest already realised" be inserted after the words "recoverable in the suit." The article "a" before the word "loan" be replaced by the article " the."

Amendment of section 5.

4. In section 5 the words " ten per cent. per annum " be replaced by the words " three per cent. per annum."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The main object of the Bengal Money-Lenders Act, 1933, is to put a check to the creditors realising huge amounts of interests quite unproportionate to the original principal. It has been sought to achieve that object by lowering the rate of the interest as well as by fixing a limit to the amount of accumulated interest to be realised from the debtors. So that the debtors may not find it beyond their capacity to pay up their debts the rate of interest has got further to be lowered. As regards the limit of the interest the language of the Act is not so very clear and as a result in mofussil courts the debtors practically get no benefit of the Act as a whole. A creditor, if he wants, can again obtain on account of interest a decree for a sum equal to the principal amount although his debtor may have paid up considerable amount of interest towards the debt outside court previously. The result is that now-a-days the good debtors also have stopped paying any interest outside court because in a court of law that amount is not taken into consideration to make the amount of interest equal to the principal amount. To clear up this anomally the language of section 4 of the Act ought to be unambiguous so that there is left no room for any doubt as to that the amount of interest on a loan should in no case exceed the principal of the loan and that the courts will never decree on account of interest any sum which is not equal to the amount of principal of the loan less the sum of interest that is already paid outside court previously.

No. 4913L.A.—26th November, 1937.—In pursuance of the provisions of rule 21 of the Bengal Legislative Assembly Rules, the following Bill which was introduced in the Bengal Legislative Assembly on the 16th September, 1937, is hereby published for general information together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons annexed thereto.

THE BENGAL SHOP CONTROLLING BILL, 1937.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the physical, mental and financial improvement of the shopkeepers;

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called The Bengal Shop Controlling Act, 1937.

2. In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context, "shop" means all shops paying trade license tax excepting those that come within Factory Act.

3. This Act shall come into force from such date as the Provincial Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, direct.

4. That under this Act no shop shall carry on its transactions with customers after 8 p.m.

5. If any shop carries on transaction after 8 p.m. it shall have to pay a fine of rupees five.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The aim and object of this Bill is to stop unnecessary and unfair competition to the utter deterioration of health and mind of both the employers and employees.

In Calcutta the Book Sellers Association transact no business after 8 p.m. and if other shops follow their example they too will be gainer.

5. In section 5 of the Act the words "three per cent." shall be substituted for the words "ten per cent."

6. In place of section 6 the following section shall be substituted, namely :—

"6. No Court shall, in respect of any loan made after the commencement of the Bengal Money-Lenders Act, decree on account of interest a sum greater than the principal of the loan including all previous payments towards interest ; if it is found by the Court that the debtor has already paid to the creditor, as interest, a sum equal to the principal of the loan the Court shall not decree any sum as interest and if it appears to the Court that the debtor has paid to the creditor, as interest, a sum in excess of the principal of the loan, the Court shall deduct the sum, realised in excess, from the principal of the loan and pass a decree accordingly. The debtor shall be entitled to an order for refund of any amount, realised as interest, in excess of double the principal of the loan".

7. In sub-section (1) of section 9 the words "including an union court" shall be added after the words "apply in the prescribed manner to the lowest Civil Court."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

1. Throughout the rural areas of Bengal excessive rates of interest are realised by usurers by advancing loans of grains and other crops especially food grains, instead of money. It is highly necessary to bring those loans within the purview of the Bengal Money-Lenders Act, 1933.

2. High and exorbitant rates of interest are at the root of many evils. It is one of the principal causes of the chronic indebtedness of our people. Once a man borrows money at high rate of interest it becomes well-nigh impossible for him to keep pace with interest, and in spite of his exertions, honesty and will to pay, the debtor becomes inextricably entangled. The debtor who borrows money at high rates of interest cannot make any headway with the borrowed capital in trade, industry and agriculture.

3. Due to high rates of interest money-lending proves to be the most lucrative profession. It is the surest, safest and speediest way to become rich. So most monied men prefer this profession to trade and industry with their consequent risks. Capital of the country flows to this direction to the great detriment of industry and commerce. There is plethora of money in one business. Consequently credit and facility for borrowing becomes too cheap. People get loan only for the asking and they turn improvident and forget to live within means. As a matter of fact too cheap credit and easy facility for borrowing does even more harm than high rates of interest. The one creates a craze for borrowing and the other does so for lending, both bringing about ultimately the crash which grinds down all the debtors and creditors equally. So in order to give relief to the debtor and creditor, to release more resources of the country for trade and industry, to avoid future crisis and to bring about collective prosperity of our people the rate of interest should be further lowered as proposed in the Bill.

4. According to the Money-Lenders Act, a money-lender cannot realise more than the principal as arrear of interest. The Act accepted the principle that interest must not exceed the principal. But difficulties have cropped up in cases of loans where vast sums have been realised as interest before the institution of the suits. As the words arrear of interest do not include interest already realised debtors cannot derive the full benefit of the Act and they suffer great loss. So it is necessary to amend the Act in the manner appearing in the Bill.

5. Amendment of section 9 is intended to give facility to the rural debtors to deposit their dues in union courts which will prove less costly and troublesome.

A

to amend the Bengal Money-Lenders Act, 1933, for more effectual control of money-lending in Bengal.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Bengal Money-Lenders Act, 1933, for reasons hereinafter appearing; Ben. Act VII of 1933.

It is hereby enacted as follows :—

1. (1) This Act may be called the Bengal Money-Lenders (Amendment) Act, 1937.

(2) It shall come into force at once.

"(3) 'Principal' means the original loan actually advanced."

3. In section 3 of the said Act, in lines 4 and 15, the word "nine" be substituted for "fifteen" and in lines 5 and 16 the word "fifteen" be substituted for "twenty-five."

5. To section 6 of the said Act, the following shall be added, namely :—

"Provided that in counting the arrears, the Court shall always have regard to the payments previously made."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

To control the money-lending business the Bengal Money-Lenders Act of 1933 was passed not without some glaring defects for which the country feels so keenly, particularly at the time of awful economical depression. To remove those defects and to redress the grievances of the debtors thereby, at least to some extent as well as for the provision of more effectual control of money-lending in Bengal, the amendment is urgently required in the country without any further delay.

[Cf. Act XVIII of 1879, s. 36(6).]

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

In paragraph 16, Chapter VIII, of their Report, the Civil Justice Committee refer to the practice under which some pleaders employ so-called clerks whose real function is not so much to do work as to get work for their masters and whose main source of remuneration consists in payment by or exaction from their masters' clients. In paragraph 20 of the same Chapter, the Committee also state that notwithstanding the existence of provisions to the contrary in the Legal Practitioners' Act, the employment of "touts" is the evident and immediate cause of many false claims and defences and of much waste of time in courts. It is also a known fact that in rural areas the distress occasioned by the economic depression is not infrequently aggravated by the activities of persons interested in fostering unnecessary litigation and that the provisions of the Legal Practitioners' Act, as it stands, are ineffective for the purpose of enabling the courts to exercise any proper control over such persons.

With a view to regulate the employment of clerks of Legal Practitioners and also to suppress touts in courts and certain offices in Bengal where they frequent without interfering with the legitimate work of persons engaged in bona fide and necessary business this Bill has been prepared. It is a self-contained measure amending where necessary the following Acts in the manner indicated below :—

1. The Legal Practitioners Act, 1879.—(a) A new chapter has been inserted after chapter VI, empowering the High Court and the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority to make rules regarding the employment, etc., of clerks of legal practitioners and to determine the conditions under which persons acting as such without licences shall be deemed to be "touts". The definition of "tout" in section 3 has been amended accordingly.

(b) Section 36 has been amended so as to provide more effectively for dealing with a proclaimed tout who is found within the precincts of a court after being excluded therefrom by an order under section 36(4). By his presence there without the necessary permission from the presiding officer, he shall be deemed to be acting as a tout under the provisions of section 36(6). He may be arrested by a written order of the presiding officer and may be summarily dealt with if he admits the offence ; otherwise he is to be sent before a magistrate.

2. The Indian Registration Act, 1908.—(a) A definition of "tout" has been included in section 2, to cover the class of persons who without a proper licence habitually frequent the precincts of a Registration office to obtain employment in connection with registration business. Provision is made in section 80G for the Inspector-General of Registration to make rules (subject to the approval of the Provincial Government) for licensing deed-writers and others who have to frequent Registration offices in the course of their business, and for declaring under what conditions persons shall be deemed to be touts. The definition of 'tout' in section 2 has also been framed to include this class.

(b) Provision has been made in a new chapter XIIIA to include the provisions of the Legal Practitioners' Act relating to "touts" and also other provisions similar to the amended provisions above-noted, so as to apply these to "touts" as defined in section 2 of the Registration Act.

(c) The Inspector-General of Registration is also by section 80G empowered to make rules regarding licences for village deed-writers (not working in the precincts of Registration offices) and determining the conditions in which they shall be deemed to be touts.

3. The Workmen's Compensation Act, 1923.—(a) For the purposes of this Act "tout" has been defined to include "tout" as defined in clause (a) of section 3 of the Legal Practitioners' Act, and also a person who habitually frequents the precincts of the court of a Commissioner for the purpose of procuring work as an agent under section 24 or otherwise than as a party or witness in any proceedings in such court or as a bona fide agent appointed under section 24.

(b) By section 31A the provisions of section 36 of the Legal Practitioners' Act have been applied directly to "touts" as defined in this Act.

4. The Bengal Village Self-Government Act, 1919.—(a) 'Tout' has been defined by new section 4 (9*a*) as a person who habitually frequents the precincts of a union bench or court except for the purpose of his own case or as a bona fide agent of a party under section 97. A proclaimed tout is however barred by new section 97 (2*a*) from appearing as an agent under section 97.

(b) A series of sections 98 A, B, etc., have been added to apply the suitable provisions of the Legal Practitioners' Act to "touts" as defined in the Bengal Village Self-Government Act.

5. The Bengal Wakf Act, 1934.—For the purposes of this Act "tout" has been given the same definition as in the Legal Practitioners' Act, and the provisions of that Act have been applied by section 43A to the office of the Commissioner of Wakfs.

6. The Bengal Agricultural Debtors Act, 1935.—Provisions similar to those proposed in the Bengal Village Self-Government Act, 1919 (vide paragraph 4 supra), are introduced into this Act.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Acts now contained in the nine published volumes entitled "Unrepealed General Acts of the Indian Legislature" have recently been subjected to considerable textual modification by the Government of India (Adaptation of Indian Laws) Order, 1937, made in pursuance of section 293 of the Government of India Act, 1935. The task of issuing a revised edition of these Acts is now being taken in hand, and the present is an appropriate occasion for the repeal of such of the enactments appearing in those volumes as were concerned merely with the making of textual alterations in previously existing Acts. The textual alterations so made are incorporated in the parent Act as soon as the amending Act comes into force, and are printed in the text in all subsequent editions, footnotes being usually added to explain the origin of the changes. It has hitherto been the general practice to print the amending Acts themselves in these volumes, although in some cases economy of space is effected by omitting portions of the text of the amending Act and inserting instead a reference to the parent Act where the amendment has already been shown.

Much printing space is occupied and no useful purpose is served by the reproduction in the volumes of the General Acts of amending Acts of the nature referred to, and it is proposed in future not to include them. They are published under their annual serial number in the volume of Statutes of the year in which they are passed and are easily found there if required.

But the insertion recently of section 6A in the General Clauses Act, 1897, has abolished all reason for keeping amending Acts of this nature alive. Notwithstanding the repeal of such Acts amendments made by them continue in existence. Henceforward they may be repealed in the same way that enactments repealing previous Acts are now habitually repealed under cover of section 6 of the General Clauses Act.

The present Bill contains proposals for the repeal of several hundred enactments, including Acts, Regulations and sections of Acts or Regulations, which were passed to make textual alterations in previous enactments. A few other enactments are included which are either themselves repeals or are enactments the effect of which is spent, such as the Excess Profits Duty Act, 1919. These have hitherto been overlooked in the annual Repealing and Amending Acts. Certain Acts which have, by virtue of the Government of India (Adaptation of Indian Laws) Order, 1937, ceased to have effect are now formally repealed.

The Bill does not include for repeal any Act or Regulation passed later than the close of the year 1935; that is to say, no enactment is to be repealed unless it has been in existence for two complete years. During this period publication of the enactment in the volume of Statutes of the year has been secured, its existence has had ample time to be appreciated, and there has been ample opportunity for any modifications introduced by it in previous Acts to be noted and incorporated in their proper places.

Nor does the Bill include for repeal any enactment affecting a law now limited in its operation to Burma or to Aden.

Some of the enactments now proposed for repeal—particularly those of earlier date than the successive General Clauses Acts which provide generally for matters such as the interpretation of references to and the saving of appointments made and other things done under Acts superseded by other Acts—contain saving clauses. The present Bill contains in clause 3 a precautionary provision preserving the effect of those savings.

Clause 4 has been added to the Bill because section 6A of the General Clauses Act, 1897, while declaratory of the principle that would probably be applied in determining the effect of the repeal of an amending Act making textual alterations in a provincial Act, does not expressly cover central Acts or Regulations amending provincial Acts. Some of the enactments included for repeal in this Bill are of this nature.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Legislative Assembly Department.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 13th September, 1937:—

L. A. BILL No. 35 OF 1937.

A Bill further to amend the Indian Penal Code and the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, for a certain purpose.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Indian Penal Code and the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, for the purpose hereinafter appearing; It is hereby enacted as follows:— XLV of 1860. V of 1898.

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1937.

Amendment of section 176, Act XLV of 1860.

2. To section 176 of the Indian Penal Code, the following shall be added, namely:— XLV of 1860.

"or if the notice or information required to be given is required by rules made by the Provincial Government under the provisions of sub-section (3) of section 565 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, relating to the notification of residence or change of or absence from residence by released convicts, with imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both". V of 1898.

Amendment of section 565, Act V of 1898.

3. Sub-section (5) of section 565 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, shall be omitted and sub-section (6) of that section shall be re-numbered as sub-section (5). V of 1898.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Under section 565 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, any person who has been convicted more than once of certain offences—e.g., theft, robbery, dacoity, coining—and sentenced for a term of three years or upwards can be ordered to report his residence or any change of or absence from his residence to the police for a maximum period of five years after his release. A breach of this order is punishable under section 176 of the Indian Penal Code with simple imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both. It has been reported that this punishment does not act as a deterrent to habitual offenders and that orders under section 565 of the Code of Criminal Procedure are frequently contravened. This Bill proposes to amend section 176 of the Indian Penal Code so as to make a specific provision therein for this offence and to alter the punishment therefor into one of imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to six months or a fine which may extend to one thousand rupees or both. Consequential amendments are also made in sub-sections (5) and (6) of section 565 of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

further to amend the Bengal Village Self-Government Act, 1919.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Bengal Village Self-Government Act, 1919, in the manner hereinafter appearing ; Ben. Act V of 1919.

It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Short title.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Bengal Village Self-Government (Amendment) Act, 1937.

(2) It shall come into force on such date as the Provincial Government may, by notification in the Calcutta Gazette, appoint in this behalf.

"(c) has been found by a civil court to have taken bribe or to have committed extortion."

Amendment of section 12.

3. In section 12, in clause (a) of sub-section (1) after the word "offence" the words "or an offence which involves moral turpitude" shall be inserted, and after clause (e) of this sub-section the following clause shall be inserted, namely :—

4. In section 14 of the said Act, for the words "the residue of his term of office as a member of the Union Board" the words "one year" shall be substituted.

Amendment of section 16.

5. In section 16 of the said Act, in clause (i) of sub-section (1) after the word "offence" the words "or an offence which involves moral turpitude" shall be inserted, and after clause (iii) of this sub-section the following clause shall be inserted, namely :—

"(iv) who has been found by a civil court to have taken bribe or to have committed extortion" and in clause (i) of sub-section (2) of this section, after the word "offence" the words "or an offence which involves moral turpitude" shall be inserted, and after clause (iii) of this sub-section the following clause shall be inserted, namely :—

"(iv) who has been found by a civil court to have taken bribe or to have committed extortion."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

There are localities in this province where Union Boards have become burdens to the union ratepayers and they really want abolition of these Boards. The mover is of opinion that the term of office of Presidents and Vice-Presidents should be shortened. If they are elected after every twelve months it is expected that the public will have a better control over them against the danger of corruption. The mover wants to remind the legislators that even in Calcutta Corporation, the highest self-governing institution of this country, the Mayor and the Deputy Mayor are elected annually. Another point is that sections 10A, 12 and 16 should also be amended to make the sections more comprehensive and effective regarding disqualifications for membership or for the office of a President or Vice-President.

PART VI

Bills introduced in the Council of State and Legislative Assembly; Reports of Select Committees presented to the Council and Assembly; and Bills published under Rule 18 of the Indian Legislative Rules.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Legislative Department.

The following Bill was introduced in the Council of State on the 20th September, 1937:—

C. of S. Bill No. 4 of 1937.

A Bill relating to the Shebaity right and the office of Shebaits and the devolution of such right or office in Hindu Debutter Endowments in favour of family deities.

Whereas it is expedient to make provision relating to the Shebaits of a private Religious or Debutter Endowment created by a person professing Hindu faith; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

1. This Act may be called Shebaity Act of 1937.

It extends to whole of British India. It applies to Debutter or private Religious Endowment.

It shall come into force immediately on its publication in the Official Gazette.

2. The founder of any such Debutter Endowment shall be entitled to provide for devolution of the office of a Shebait and of the Shebaity right regardless of the law of inheritance.

3. In the absence of any provision made by the founder as aforesaid or any usage prevailing in such Endowment or in the founder's family, the devolution of such office or of such right will follow the law of inheritance with all incident of property ancillary thereto except as hereinafter provided.

4. Where devolution laid down by the founder is vested in another family and for any reason whatsoever it fails, the Shebaity right and the office shall revest in the founder's family and will thereafter follow the law of inheritance.

5. A person who has changed religion or professes another faith or has been excluded from the communion of Hindu faith or religion will, however, be excluded from inheriting such right or office or from enjoying such right or continuing in such office.

6. The office of a Shebait and the Shebaity right shall not be transferable or liable to attachment under any decree made against a Shebait.

7. A Shebait shall, however, be entitled to renounce his office or his Shebaity right, in writing, in favour of the next heir or successor and on execution of such writing his heir or successor shall become entitled to such office and the said right.

8. The deity of any such Endowment will be treated as a Corporation Sole and shall by the name of the deity sue or be sued.

9. In all suits or proceedings in which the deity is made a party, the Shebait shall be the recognised agent of the deity.

10. Where there are more than one Shebait, any one of them may be nominated as such recognised agent by all or the majority of them.

11. Where however the interest of such Endowment conflicts with that of the Shebait or where the Shebaits or the majority of them failed or refused to institute a suit or proceeding or defend any, any Court or Officer, having jurisdiction over the subject-matter of the dispute and on being satisfied that a prima facie case or defence has been made out upon an enquiry held or otherwise, shall nominate a person as the recognised agent of the deity for the purpose of such suit or proceeding.

12. Such recognised agent of the deity shall be entitled to be reimbursed for all costs incurred by him out of the assets of the Endowment if he is appointed as such by the Court or Officer as aforesaid or if such suit or proceeding be bona fide instituted or defended in the interest of the Endowment or if the Court or Officer before whom such suit or proceeding is heard and decided certifies that such costs were reasonably incurred.

13. Nothing hereinbefore contained shall apply to or in any way affect—

(a) the right or liability of a Shebait as a Manager or Trustee of the estate of the deity,

(b) any suit or proceeding inter se amongst the Shebaits for partition of palas or turn of worship or suits of a like nature,

(c) any suit or proceeding instituted or taken by a person for establishing his claim to a Shebaity right or office or possession thereof, and it be provided that the deity shall not be made a party in such suits.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The object of this Bill is to remove doubts and difficulties that have lately arisen relating to private Debutter or religious endowments by persons professing Hindu faith. Such difficulties have been largely due to the recent decision of the Full Bench of the Hon'ble High Court of Calcutta in Monohar Mukherjee against Bhupendra Mukherjee, I.L.R., 60 Calcutta 452, which decision has since been affirmed by the Lords of the Judicial Committee of His Majesty's Privy Council in Ganesh Chandra Dhur against Lal Behari Dhur, 41 Cal. Weekly Notes, Page I. Before the Judicial Committee affirmed the decision of the Full Bench in Monohar Mukherjee's case, it was freely discussed amongst the litigants and lawyers that that case was not correctly decided.

In fact if one refers to the judgment of the then Chief Justice (The Right Hon'ble Sir George Claus Rankin) there was every foundation for entertaining such a view. The decision of the Privy Council has set at rest such doubts and the effect thereof will be far reaching.

The founder of an endowment hardly contemplated that the line of succession to the office of a Shebait will be not what he wanted to be but they must be as it has been decided in the two cases mentioned above.

When Sir Lancelot Sanderson and his colleague on the Bench decided some years ago that the founder of such an endowment is entitled to authorise his trustee and/or shebait to appoint his successor, various documents had come into existence wherein such right had been given through a medium of trust. But the decision of the Lords of the Judicial Committee has shaken the foundation of even such a right which the founder was held to possess.

It will be and is iniquitous to debar a founder to decide who shall be the Shebait of an endowment he was creating. Serious other difficulties may also arise as an offshoot of the said Full Bench decision or that of Their Lordships of the Judicial Committee, viz., that the Shebaity right is property and is descendible on the heirs.

No one ever contemplated that by giving such right of property to the shebait one would be bringing in persons who never professes Hindu faith or had become a convert to other religion.

The Caste Disability Removal Act of 1850 did away with the forfeiture of the right of inheritance when a person renounced his religion or excluded from the communion of that religion. It is needless to point out that the said Act which is commonly known as Freedom of Religion Act is bound to come into operation in case of devolution of Shebaity right. It may be doubted whether the old decisions reported in 11 M.I.A. 405 or in 13 I.A. 100 will apply in private Debutter endowments, when one is told that Shebaity right is property.

The present Bill gives a right to the founder to nominate persons or a line of succession in any manner he likes. No one can question or dispute that it is and should be a natural right and a person ought to possess such power when he establishes any such private Debutter or religious endowment. After all one must not forget that the founder is the best person to determine in whose custody his family Idol should be or properly looked after or the estate which he dedicates, to be fully preserved for the benefit of the deity.

The Bill also attempts to remove the difficulties which litigants have to face of late in the matter of institution of suits by and against the deity. In Jogendra versus Hemanta Kumari Debi the Lords of the Judicial Committee held that the right of suit is vested in the Shebait and not in the Idol. The Allahabad High Court also held the same view (see 19 All. 330) but expressed a different one in 33 All. 735, and held that the Idol is the person to bring a suit or against whom the suit has to be brought. In Promotho vs. Prodymna, 52, I.A. 245, the Lords of the Judicial Committee insisted that the interest of the deity should be looked after by a disinterested next friend appointed by the Court.

To obviate such difficulties and inconsistencies provisions have been made treating the deity as a juristic person. But as the Idol cannot physically act, provisions for the appointment of a recognised agent which will enable him to have the conduct of the litigation and conform to the provisions of the Civil Procedure Code. Provisions made in the Bill will be an effective check on unnecessary litigations resulting in the estate being swallowed up by costs of litigation. It is also expected to remove difficulties in various other ways in the manner of institution of suits by or against the estate of the deity. There is a further provision in the Bill recognising the present law against transfer by a Shebait of their rights save and except when it is in favour of the next heir or successor. A Shebait may become very old and incapable to look after the religious endowment due to age or other infirmities. It is not well settled law yet that he can retire therefrom in favour of the next heir or successor. Sir George Rankin doubted whether a Shebait could do so. To remove such doubt, a provision has been incorporated with the reservation which may be beneficial to every one concerned.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The object of this Bill is to remove inconsistencies and anomalies in the Act No. XXIII of 1936 for the administration of the Durgah and the Endowment of the Durgah of Khawaja Moinud-Din Chishti, generally known as Durgah Khawaja Saheb, Ajmer. The final reading of the Bill which became that Act was carried in a great hurry and the Bill as a whole was not scrutinised either by the official draftsman or by non-official members.

As a result the Act contains a number of inconsistencies, grammatical faults and unworkable provisions. The amendments effected by this Bill are explained in detail in the Notes on Clauses appended below. They are mostly of a verbal character. Changes of substance have been avoided; but, where they occur, they are wholly uncontentious.

ZIAUDDIN AHMAD.

ALIGARH;

August, 1937.

NOTES ON CLAUSES.

Clause 2.—An Act of the Central Legislature cannot empower the Committee to take action outside British India or to enforce outside British India action taken within British India. The reference, therefore, to "India" in section 2 of the Act is either useless or ultra vires and has been omitted.

Clauses 3 and 4.—Section 5 of the Act has been generally revised and as redrafted incorporates the essential provisions of existing sections 6, 7 and 8, which have therefore been omitted from the Act. [Section 7, in particular, is violently inconsistent with clause (c) of existing section 5.] The provision that all members should be Hanafi Muslims has been brought to the beginning of the section. In clauses (e) to (m) of sub-section (1) the words "Legislative Assembly" have been employed in relation to Provinces with a single Chamber Legislature, and the words "Provincial Legislature" in relation to other Provinces. This variation of language, read with proposed section 14 (clause 8 of the Bill), secures that the election will be by both Chambers of the Legislature where there are two such Chambers.

Sub-section (2) reproduces existing section 8 which employs the words "for election", which would seem to exclude the members referred to in clauses (a), (b), (n) and (o) of section 5 from the requirement of literacy. This has been remedied.

Sub-section (3) is designed to reproduce in clearer form the last paragraph of existing section 5.

Clause 5.—The amendment to sub-section (1) of section 10 is necessary because no member is "elected" under clause (a) or clause (b) of section 5. Moreover, the expression "items" is not in accordance with drafting usage.

Clause 6.—The amendment of sub-section (3) of section 11 is partly grammatical "That" is superfluous and "will" should be "shall". The expression "its manager" is ambiguous, as it could be referred to either "The Committee" or "Durgah Endowment". "Manager of the Durgah" appears, from a reference to clause (k) of sub-section (2) of section 15, to be the correct form.

Clause 7.—The requirement in section 12 that all actions of a standing or special committee must be confirmed ex post facto by the Committee is bound to prove unworkable. The Bill substitutes a power to impose conditions on delegations of powers whereby the same result can be secured where desirable.

Clause 8.—Clause (b) of section 14 is covered by clause (a). It seems advisable not to require the Chief Commissioner to make rules in respect of elections held by the Legislature, as he is not likely to be aware of the conditions and practice in the various Legislatures and it would be preferable to leave these matters to the Presidents concerned. (When existing section 14 was drafted no elections by Legislatures were contemplated in the Bill as introduced.)

Clause 9.—It is difficult to understand exactly what classes of dispute are intended to be covered by section 16. Moreover, the words "aggrieved party" are very ambiguous and the "rank" of a District Judge is an indeterminate quantity. The redraft avoids these objections. The importation of the provisions of the Indian Arbitration Act, 1899, seems clearly undesirable. That Act is primarily meant for Presidency towns only and is not understood in the Mofussil, where arbitration is governed by the Civil Procedure Code. In any case, it seems desirable not to attach complicated legal procedure of any sort to a process of arbitration provided in the Act in the interests of simplicity and expedition. The Bill effects this.

Clauses 10 and 11.—The amendments are merely grammatical.

Clause 12.—The qualifications for the auditor in sub-section (1) of section 20 are not expressed in statutory terms, whatever their popular significance; and the Bill substitutes the recognised qualification for auditors of company accounts.

Sub-section (2) of section 10 provides no indication of how publication is to be effected. This has been done.

Legislative Assembly Department.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 20th September, 1937:—

L. A. BILL No. 38 OF 1937.

A Bill further to amend the Destructive Insects and Pests Act, 1914, for certain purposes.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Destructive Insects and Pests Act, 1914, for the purposes hereinafter appearing; It is hereby enacted as follows:— II of 1914.

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Destructive Insects and Pests (Amendment) Act, 1937.

Amendment of long title and preamble, Act II of 1914.

2. In the long title and preamble of the Destructive Insects and Pests Act, 1914 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act), after the word "into" the words "and the extension from one province to another in" shall be inserted. II of 1914.

Amendment of section 2, Act II of 1914.

3. In clause (a) of section 2 of the said Act, for the words "and trees or bushes" the words "and all trees, bushes or plants" shall be substituted.

Amendment of section 3, Act II of 1914.

4. In section 3 of the said Act,—

(a) to sub-section (1) the words "or of insects generally or any class of insects" shall be added; and

(b) in sub-section (2), after the word "articles" the words "or any insect or class of insects" shall be inserted.

Insertion of new sections 4A, 4B, 4C and 4D in Act II of 1914.

5. After section 4 of the said Act the following sections shall be inserted, namely:—

Power of Central Government to regulate or prohibit transport from province to province of insects or articles likely to infect.

"4A The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, prohibit or regulate, subject to such conditions as the Central Government may impose, the export from a province or the transport from one province to another province in British India of any article or class of articles likely to cause infection to any crop or of insects generally or any class of insects.

Refusal to carry article of which transport is prohibited

4B When a notification has been issued under section 4A, then, notwithstanding any other law for the time being in force, the person responsible for the booking of goods or parcels at any railway station or inland steam vessel station,—

(a) where the notification prohibits export or transport, shall refuse to receive for carriage at, or to forward or allow to be carried on, the railway or inland steam vessel from that station anything, of which import or transport is prohibited, consigned to any place in British India outside the province in which such station is situate; and

(b) where the notification imposes conditions upon export or transport, shall so refuse, unless the consignor produces, or the thing consigned is accompanied by, a document or documents of the prescribed nature showing that those conditions are satisfied.

Application of section 4B to articles exported to Indian States.

4C. Where, by or under any law in force in the territories of any Indian State, the import into that State of any article likely to cause infection to any crop or of any insect has been prohibited, the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, declare that the provisions of section 4B shall apply in respect of any such article or insect consigned from any place in British India to any place in that State.

Power of Central Government to make rules.

4D. The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules prescribing the nature of the documents which shall accompany any article or insect the export or transport whereof is subject to conditions imposed under section 4A, or which shall be held by the consignor or consignee thereof, the authorities which may issue such documents and the manner in which the documents shall be employed."

Amendment of section 5, Act II of 1914.

6. In sub-section (1) of section 5 of the said Act, after the word "destruction" the words "of any insect or class of insects or" shall be inserted and after the word and figure "section 3" the words, figure and letter "or under section 4A" shall be inserted.

Insertion of new section 5A in Act II of 1914.

7. After section 5 of the said Act the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

Penalties.

"5A. Any person who exports any article or insect from a province or transports any article or insect from one province to another in British India in contravention of a notification issued under section 4A, or attempts so to export or transport any article or insect, or exports or attempts to export from British India to an Indian State any article or insect in respect of which a notification under section 4C has been issued, and any person responsible for the booking of goods or parcels at a railway or inland steam vessel station who knowingly contravenes the provisions of section 4B shall be punishable with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees and, upon any subsequent conviction, with imprisonment which may extend to three months, or with fine which may extend to two thousand rupees, or with both."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Sub-section (1) of section 3 of the Destructive Insects and Pests Act, 1914, confers upon the Central Government the power to prohibit or regulate import into any part of British India of any article or class of articles likely to cause infection to any crop. Power is, however, not available for the prohibition or regulation of movement from one part of British India to another of living plants likely to cause infection to any crop. Such power is particularly needed to prevent the further spread of "San Jose Scale" (Aspidiotus Perniciosus) which is a serious fruit pest and is known to exist in certain parts of the country. Central control, as contemplated in item 30 of Part II of List III of the Seventh Schedule of the Government of India Act, 1935, is considered desirable and one of the objects of the Bill is to provide for such control. The Bill is also intended to enable the Central Government to exercise control over the importations, and movement from one province to another province, of live insects which are or may be destructive to crops in other ways than by causing infection to them. As the Destructive Insects and Pests Act, 1914, stands at present, such insects do not come within its scope.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Legislative Assembly Department.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 27th September, 1937:—

L. A. BILL No. 39 OF 1937.

A Bill further to amend the Patna University Act, 1917.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Patna University Act, 1917, for the purpose hereinafter appearing; It is hereby enacted as follows:— XVI of 1917.

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Patna University (Amendment) Act, 1937.

Amendment of section 11, Act XVI of 1917.

2. In section 11 of the Patna University Act, 1917, as amended by the Government of India (Adaptation of Indian Laws) Order, 1937, for the words "or of Orissa" the following words shall be substituted, namely:— XVI of 1917.

"or in the Province of Orissa exclusive of those areas comprised therein which were transferred from the Presidency of Madras by the Government of India (Constitution of Orissa) Order, 1936".

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Section 11 of the Patna University Act, 1917 (XVI of 1917), as adapted by the Government of India (Adaptation of Indian Laws) Order, 1937, has the effect of extending the jurisdiction of the Patna University to the whole of the Province of Orissa as it stood on 1st April, 1937, and consequently of removing the jurisdiction of the Andhra University over the areas which were transferred to that province from the Presidency of Madras by the Government of India (Constitution of Orissa) Order, 1936. This result was neither intended nor foreseen. It is necessary to rectify the position and the Bill is designed to achieve this object.

I have the honour to submit herewith the report on the working of the Calcutta Fire Brigade for the year ending the 31st March 1937, as drawn by Mr. A. Frederick, M.I. FIRE E., Chief Officer, Calcutta Fire Brigade.

No. F. B. 854, dated Calcutta, the 11th September 1937.

From—A. Frederick, Esq., M.I. FIRE E., Chief Officer, Fire Brigade, Calcutta,

To—The Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Department of Public Health and Local Self-Government (Municipal).

(Through L. H. Colson, Esq., C.I.E., I.P., J.P., Commissioner of Police, Calcutta.)

I have the honour to submit the following report on the working of the Calcutta Fire Brigade for the year ended 31st March 1937.

The work of the department throughout the year has been normal.

Financial Statement.—The Statement of Receipts and Expenditure and payments made by the municipalities within the jurisdiction of the Fire Brigade and Licensed Warehouse Act I of 1893 is given in Appendix I.

The cost of maintenance of the Fire Brigade is derived from contributions by (a) the Calcutta Municipality, (b) the Howrah Municipality and (c) the Garden Reach Municipality contributing at the rate of 83·5 per cent., 14 per cent. and 2·5 per cent., respectively.

Fees for licensed warehouses are charged under section 10 of the Licensed Warehouse and Fire Brigade Act I of 1893, and are levied at 10 per cent. of the annual valuation of warehouses, subject to a maximum of Rs. 1,500 per warehouse per annum, and the income thus derived provides the 50 per cent. of the cost of the upkeep of the Fire Brigade under the Act.

Fires, etc.—The total number of calls to fires or supposed fires was 547 being a decrease of 77 as compared with the previous year. The actual number of fires attended was 459 which shows a decrease of 79 as compared with the previous year, and the number of fires classed as serious (i.e., over Rs. 20,000 damage per fire, see Appendix III) was 17 as compared with 22 during the previous year.

The total number of pumping hours at fires during the year was 2,280 hours 30 minutes as compared with 1,496 hours 30 minutes in the previous year.

Fire Stations.—Appendix IV gives the number of times each fire station has been turned out in response to fire calls, together with monthly statements.

Staff.—The strength of the Brigade during the year was 272 as detailed below:—

One Chief Officer, 1 Second Officer, 1 Chief Engineer, 5 Station Officers, 8 Engineers, 7 European firemen,
1 Warehouse Inspector, 4 clerks, 1 Store-keeper, 3 telephone operators, 2 carpenters, 2 lathe mechanics, 1 fitter, 1 blacksmith, 1 tinsmith, 10 Indian drivers, 1 head tindal, 21 tindals, 178 khallasis and 13 menial employees.

The conduct and discipline of the staff throughout the year have been exemplary.

Fatalities and accidents.—Appendix VI gives short reports of fires and special occurrences involving loss of life or serious accidents.

The number of lives lost during the year under review is 13 as compared with 9 in the previous year.

Seven persons were injured at fires as compared with 31 in the previous year.

I am glad to report that no serious accidents occurred during training recruits, or at drill.

In all cases, where necessary, first-aid was rendered by the Fire Brigade and the injured persons conveyed to hospital by motor ambulances.

Water supply.—In Calcutta water for fire extinguishing is obtained from the unfiltered water-supply system maintained by the Corporation of Calcutta with pumping stations located on the banks of the river Hooghly at Mullick Ghat and Watgunge.

Fires in Cossipore-Chitpur and adjoining areas are dealt with water supplied from ponds or tanks, many of which are replenished only by rainfall. The condition of water-supply in this area is serious and needs immediate attention owing to the many fire risks, comprising jute presses, warehouses, dwellings, shops, etc.

The jute press and warehouse owners have to be compelled to provide an alternative water supply for fire extinguishing, such as installing sprinklers, or pumps and mains with an intake from the river, and if a proper water supply was provided the above restrictions would not have been necessary.

Similar conditions prevail also in Howrah and although the municipality has installed some hydrants on the filtered water supply for being used at fires these are not sufficient. The question of filling a pond or tank is as important in Howrah as in Cossipore, and the provision of a proper water-supply for fire extinguishing should receive early attention.

Fire float.—The fire float (5,000 gallons per minute capacity) is stationed on the river opposite the Prinsep's Ghat. During the year under review it has responded to 15 calls as compared with 9 calls in the previous year.

Street fire alarms, telephones and electrical communications.—I am pleased to record that the Bengal Telephone Company has done excellent service by maintaining the fire alarm system, etc., and by rendering assistance when required.

Inspection Department.—The majority of theatres, cinemas and other places of public amusement, with few exceptions, have no serious fire risks.

There were no serious fires during the year under review in theatres, cinemas or places of public amusement.

In connection with the Licensed Warehouse and Fire Brigade Act I of 1893, 6,264 inspections of warehouses have been made during the year. Four hundred and twelve applications and complaints have been attended to and disposed of. One hundred and fifteen prosecutions were made under section 14 of Act I of 1893 which resulted in 63 persons being fined, the fines aggregating in all Rs. 634. Twenty-nine persons were warned and discharged and 23 cases were withdrawn.

General.—The Calcutta Fire Brigade protects the city of Calcutta and the municipalities of Howrah and Garden Reach, and may attend fires outside the boundaries of the above, but not exceeding a radius of 6 miles from Fire Brigade Headquarters, provided appliances can be spared, and on payment of a prescribed fee. The total area protected is approximately 120 square miles, comprising a population of over 2,000,000 persons.

Fire Brigade Headquarters is still located in premises rented for that purpose. A scheme for building an up-to-date and efficient headquarters on Free School Street has been approved by the Calcutta Corporation and the Howrah Municipality. The approval of Garden Reach Municipality is being awaited, and as soon as it is received the matter will be submitted to Government for sanction. It is expected that the scheme will be put into operation during the year 1937-38.

O. M. MARTIN,

MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT made this 2nd day of December one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven BETWEEN THE RAMAKRISHNA MISSION, a Society registered under the Societies Registration Act, XXI of 1860, and having its registered office at Belur, thana Bally, in the district of Howrah (hereinafter called the "Society") of the ONE PART and the Governor of the Province of Bengal (hereinafter called the said "GOVERNOR") of the OTHER PART.

WHEREAS for the purpose of a direct approach to the Ramakrishna Mission headquarters at Belur (Howrah), viz., the construction of a direct road from the Grand Trunk Road to Belur Math, the said Society has applied to the Government of Bengal for acquisition under the provisions of the Land Acquisition Act, I of 1894, as amended by Act XXXVIII of 1923, of a piece or parcel of land containing 0·957 of an acre or thereabout situate at Belur, thana Bally, in the district of Howrah in Bengal and more particularly described in the Schedule hereto and delineated in the plan* hereunto.

AND WHEREAS the said Government of Bengal being satisfied by an enquiry held under sections 5A and 40 (1) of the said Act that the proposed acquisition is needed for the aforesaid purpose and that the said work is likely to prove useful to the public, has consented to acquire on behalf of the said Society the piece or parcel of land hereinbefore described.

AND WHEREAS the said Government of Bengal has required the said Society under the provisions of section 41 of the abovementioned Act to enter into the agreement with the Governor of Bengal hereinafter contained.

NOW THIS INDENTURE WITNESSETH that it is hereby agreed and declared as follows:—

1. On demand the said Society shall and will pay to the said Government of Bengal all and every compensation in respect of the said land tendered, paid or awarded or to be tendered, paid or awarded by the Collector under the Land Acquisition Act, I of 1894, as amended by Act XXXVIII of 1923, or by the Court to which a reference under Part III of the said Act may be made or by the Court or Courts to which an appeal from the award of the said Court may be preferred and all costs, charges and expenses of the proceedings in the aforesaid Courts, or otherwise incidental to the proposed acquisition or payable in respect thereof under the provisions of the said Act.

2. On demand made by the said Collector the obligations of the Society under the last preceding clause not being thereby limited the said Society shall and will deposit with the said Collector such sum or sums of money as in his discretion the said Collector may, in anticipation, estimate to be necessary for the purposes mentioned in the last preceding clause.

3. On payment by the said Society of all demands under the foregoing first clause, or, in the discretion of the said Government of Bengal (on deposit by the Society of all estimated amounts as provided in the second clause) but not before possession shall have been taken under the provisions of the abovementioned Act, the Governor of Bengal shall make over possession of the said land to the said Society and shall execute and do all such acts and deeds as may be necessary and proper for effectually vesting the same in the said Society.

4. The said land shall be held by the said Society for the purposes of a direct road from Grand Trunk Road to Belur Math as is hereinbefore mentioned and without the sanction in writing of the said Government of Bengal first had and obtained for no other purpose whatsoever.

6. Should the said extension not be completed and fully equipped in all respects ready for use within the period stated in the last preceding clause or within such further period as in its discretion may be prescribed or allowed by the said Government of Bengal or should the said land at any time thereafter cease for a period of six consecutive months to be held and used or ceased to be required for the purposes provided for in the foregoing fourth clause, then and in any such case, the said Government may summarily re-enter upon and take possession of the said land together with all constructions thereon whether such constructions were erected before or after transfer of the land to the Society and thereupon the interest of the said Society in the said land and constructions shall absolutely cease and determine.

7. On taking such possession the said Government may sell or otherwise deal with the said land and constructions as it may think proper.

(I) Should the said Government sell the land with all the constructions, the said Government, after deducting the expenses incurred in connection with the said taking of possession and with such sale, shall pay the proceeds to the said Society.

(II) Should the said Government decide not to sell the said land and constructions, the said Government shall retain the said land and constructions thereon, in which case the Governor shall repay to the Society the market value as on the day of re-entry of all the constructions erected by the said Society and all sums received from the Society in respect of all and every compensation as provided in the foregoing first clause (less the statutory allowance of fifteen per cent. and less any amount received on account of trees and buildings which are not in existence at the time of resumption), but will not repay any sums paid and received on account of costs, charges and expenses.

(III) Should the said Government decide to sell the constructions only, upon such sale, the Governor, after deducting the expenses of taking possession and selling, pay the balance of the proceeds of the sale to the said Society, together with the sum received from the Society in respect of the compensation for the land (less the statutory allowance of fifteen per cent. and less any amount received from the Society on account of trees and buildings which are not in existence at the time of resumption), but will not repay any sum paid and received on account of costs, charges and expenses.

8. The public shall be entitled to use the road to be constructed on the land for the purpose of going to and coming from the Belur Math only and in such a manner as not to damage, destroy or impair in any way the road, the land, drain, foot-path, guard room, shelter, structure, telephone room, culvert, cables, underground or overhead, electric and telephone posts, water hydrants, trees, plants, or greenplots, which may be constructed, erected or planted for the betterment and for the beneficial use of the road as such by the said Society who shall manage, maintain, repair and otherwise keep in a good and safe condition the road with liberty to close it for repair, improvement, addition, alteration or for such other like purposes connected therewith for a period not exceeding seven days at a time.

9. Should any dispute or difference arise touching or concerning the subject matter of this agreement or any covenant, clause or thing herein contained, the same shall be referred to the said Government of Bengal and the opinion and decision of the said Government upon such dispute or difference shall be final and conclusive and binding on the parties hereto.
